*The sun will rise tomorrow
 Into a cloudless sky.
 The wind will blow a lofty breeze,
 The fields let forth a sigh.
 And life will pay no mind —
 To all the hurt I feel.
 But slowly pass as if to say,
 The pain just can't be real.
 For in this world of happiness
 There is no place for sorrow.
 Life goes on —
 And all have learned
 The sun will rise tomorrow!*

*Tracy Johnson

*In time, pictures may fade away.
 But remembrances of those we have known leave a dramatic imprint on our lives forever. In memory of those individuals, may the rest of us live to see the sun rise tomorrow.*

A Spirit Extra

Determination, a high level of skill, combined with the required dedication paid off for the Varsity Cheerleaders. As a result of their hard work at cheerleading camp, they were selected by the National Cheerleading Association (NCA) Staff to attend Nationals, December 26-29 in Dallas, Texas. In the competition which qualified the cheers for this event they also received both the "Award of Excellence" and the "Spirit Award".

The squad raised the money needed for the trip through various fund raisers which included; the cheer sponsored tennis tournament at King's Court, a food booth at Art in the Park, car washes and candy sales. Another windfall came in the form of a $500.00 prize for their second place finish in the Foley's Cheer Appointment Contest held at ElCon Mall in Tucson. This also helped fund the trip. According to Amy Mills, "The fund raising was as hard as the training."

Such an honor brought the squad members closer together and gave them a feeling of commitment, pride and responsibility to do their best. Mrs. Gloria Fauver expressed, "I knew the squad had the potential to do well. Their desires and ability levels surpass all squads of the past."

Members of the winning squad were: Cynthia Allen, Michelle Bartholomew, Tiffany Brown, Fred Calindas, Lori Donahue, Pedro Flores, Amy Mills, Vicky Lindogan, Diane Richter, Maelien Shipman, and Jill Jenia. However for various reasons the makeup of the squad who attended Nationals was as follows: Cynthia Allen, Michelle Bartholomew, Tiffany Brown, Jill Jenia, Vicky Lindogan, Amy Mills, Diane Richter, Maelien Shipman, Mascot Heather McCray and Sponsor Gloria Fauver. Alternates were Lorie Donague, Char White, and Annette Crawford. (Hammond)

Knowledge Plus

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be on a submarine in the depths of the ocean? For Cynthia Allen this illusion became a reality. She spent eight hours aboard the USS Haddock (a nuclear submarine) in the Pacific Ocean. This was but one of the many activities she participated in on a ten day trip,

June 20-30, to San Diego, California which was sponsored by the United States Navy.

Cindy won the Navy Superior Award for her science project at the local fair. This qualified her to enter the Navy National Science Competition. Her entry consisted of a research paper, which was selected from over 380 entries as one of 25 national winners. Her win allowed her to attend.

The trip began at Ruben Fleet Space Center. The group then went to the Naval Base Headquarters in San Diego, where they met the commander of the base, Rear Admiral Bruce Boland. Here the Secretary of Navy presented them with both a certificate and a flag which was flown over the USS Chandler (a Destroyer). They also visited the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton; the Naval Air Station, Miramar; the Basic Underwater Demolition School (where SEALs train); the Naval Air Station, North Island, and many other sites.

The support given to Cindy by Dr. Hege, from Stewart Observatory, combined with a year of research at U of A, and her interest in Astronomy gave her confidence in entering the competition. Cindy felt the quality of her research was high. She concluded, "I have never had a more fun ten days in my life! The Nuclear Submarine was fascinating! It was a once in a lifetime experience for me." (Hammond)

The Award Of Academic Excellence

There are some people who make exceptional grades. Those who fall into that category can be members of the Buena High School National Honor Society. For students to be inducted into the NHS, they have to have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or above.

If the student had this grade point average he was invited to apply for membership. Current members of the staff were then given the task of choosing new inductees for the following year.

Mrs. Kathy Miller, the NHS sponsor has been with the club for three years. Mrs. Miller said, "The National Honor Society creates enthusiasm for scholarships, stimulates a desire to render services, promotes worthy leadership, and encourages the development of character in all students of Buena High School."

With inductions coming up in the future, Gia DeGiovanni looks over some student applications. (Flores)

JUST SAY NO!!

Drinking and driving is a nationwide problem that has affected the Sierra Vista community and tragically Buena High School as well. Students Against Driving Drunk (S.A.D.D.) has been working very hard to confront and resolve this serious problem. Several members went to the Middle School to tell students there what S.A.D.D. is all about. Other members formed a committee to distribute contracts for life which are agreements between students and their parents not to drive drunk. S.A.D.D. provided public service announcements against drinking and driving which were broadcast on Cochise County radio stations. Committees were also set up to establish mock arrests for driving while under the influence. They have organized an annual S.A.D.D. Fest to present the problem on a large scale to the whole school. "If we can save just one life, it'll be worth it," said Betty Dominguez.

Public awareness with positive peer support and influence were some of the goals of this organization. Mrs. Laura Haas, the sponsor of S.A.D.D., also hoped to get at least 50% of the school population involved with S.A.D.D. She stated enthusiastically, "I'm really proud of the turnout. We have a very diversified group of students in S.A.D.D." (Brown)

The officers are Mike Gorday and David Bennett (co-presidents), Jacquelyn Chapman (secretary), Kaylee Davis (treasurer), and Tamara McMains (public relations). Due to the large number of S.A.D.D. members, it is practically impossible to name everyone in the club. (Flemister)

WITH BUSINESS IN MIND

DECA, or Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a student organization designed to teach those students interested in business careers leadership development, vocational understanding, civic consciousness, and social intelligence.

The Buena DECA chapter performed many civic-minded projects during the course of the year. They gave turkeys away to the staff for Thanksgiving, took administrators out to breakfast, sold programs at home games, held a Halloween party for the teacher's children, sold candy to most of the clubs, and donated money to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Distributive Education Clubs of America has chapters in each state. At the end of the year is the DECA State Conference in Phoenix, and the National Conference in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) was for students interested in business careers. FBLA held a Halloween Carnival, sold Pumpkin Grams and candy, and sold Carnations for Valentine's Day. "All of FBLA's projects were related to the development of greater support of the free enterprise system," said FBLA sponsor Mrs. Terry Rothory.

In order to be a member of FBLA, a student had to have taken or be enrolled in a business class. DECA members had to be enrolled in either the Marketing or Co-Op classes. Members of both clubs had to pay local, state, and national dues. (Ugalde)

DECA members are: Michele Paulson, Dee Finbraaten, Susan Peregrin, Vice-President Shanon Rohlik, Karen Haygood, Darla Farbo, Nancy Sanders, Secretary Janet Owsley, Matt Schwartz, Treasurer Andrew Saunders, President Maelien Shipman, Leonard Escalante, Yolando Green, Scott Harrison, Mista Licence, Darrin Staidhar, Keith Wagner, Helena Whitney, Marti Morris, Jeanett Marcroft, Maria Castillo, Werner Bleakney, Elan Wetterschneider, Reporter Chris Campbell, Stacey Scruggs, Sandy Hall, Dawn LaCount, Julie Thompson, Parliamentarian Barbara Bateman, Russell McLean, Jon Collete, Bryon Mabery, Tina Fletcher, and Historian Angie Mason. THE YEARLING STAFF OVERCOMING ALL PROBLEMS

We finally did it. That's right. We completed our task — to make a yearbook. It wasn't easy. Problems arose unexpectedly and caused stress in the life of the staffer and the teacher alike. Some of the major challenges included: coordination among the different people responsible for the various aspects and phases of production, the juggling of people's time to meet deadlines, and keeping everyone necessary informed of deadlines. Staffers learned more than how to just survive a deadline. They learned responsibility, and business skills.

"Yearbook provides experience in many areas for a student who participates in class. They have the opportunity to write, use creativity, and develop some business skills. Responsibility and dedication to work are two major characteristics students must possess in order to successfully function in this class," stated Mr. Joseph Jackson, yearbook sponsor.

Students handled many responsibilities during the course of production. Students had to interview teachers, club sponsors, and students, as well as arranging appointments with photographers provided by the Buena High photo department. Writing body copy was also important, along with designing layouts for pages. All of these tasks had to be completed before deadlines in order to succeed. Imagination had to be a part of the student's personality. The staffer also had to have flexibility to overcome problems that arose unexpectedly. (West)

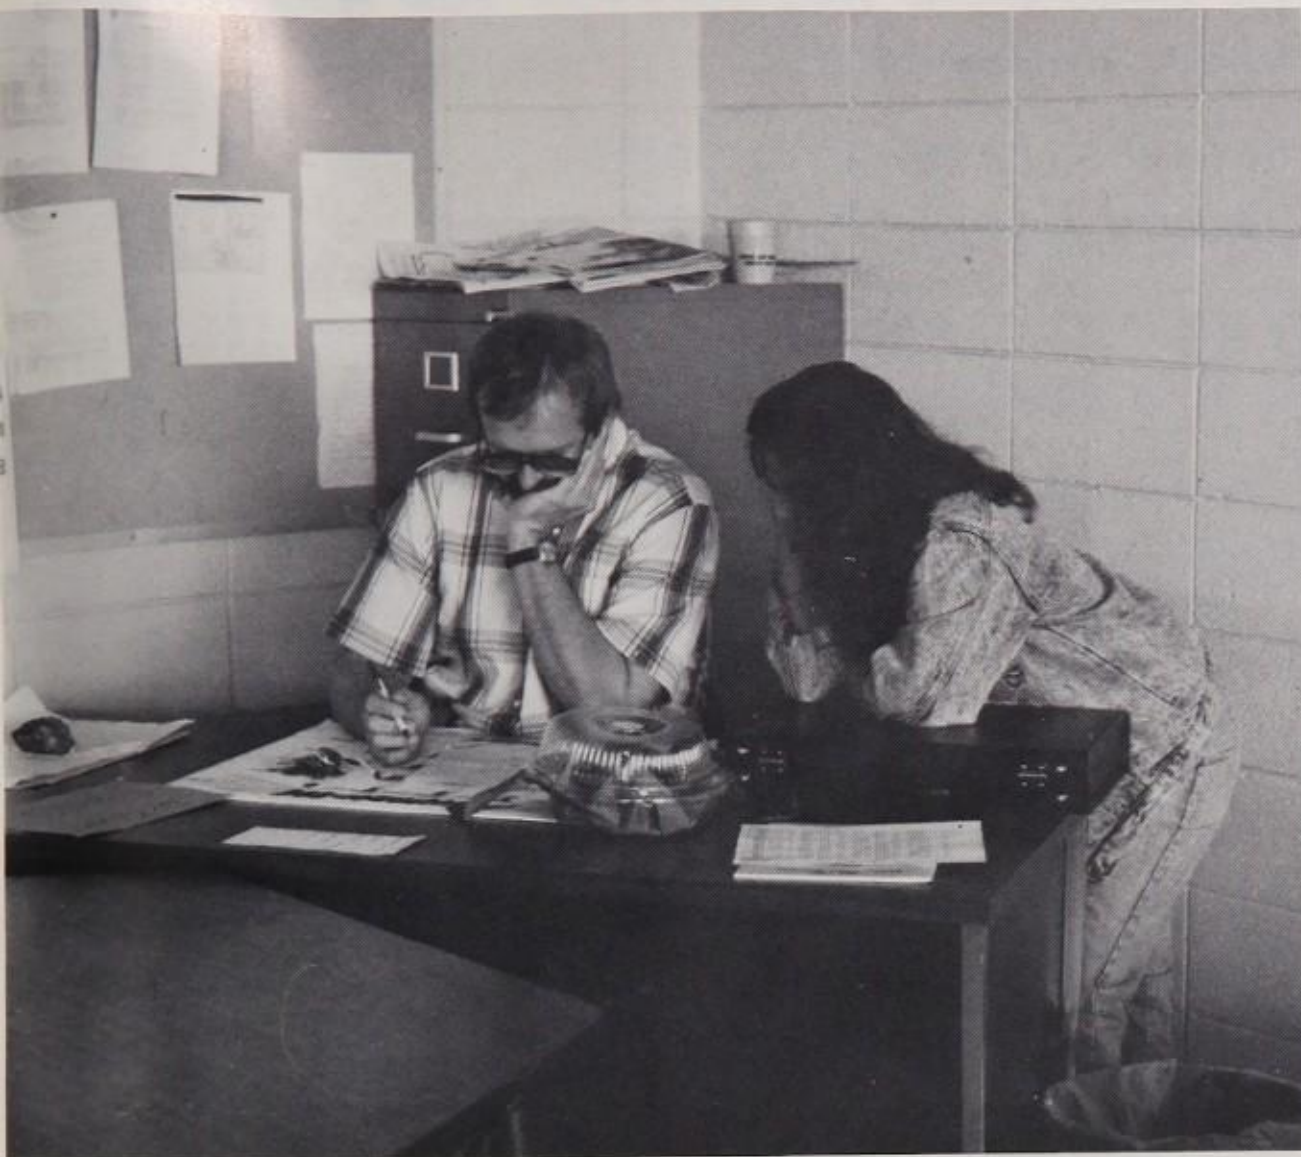

As deadline approaches, Peter Flores works intently on his pages. (Paulson)

'Please don't make me start over,' mumbles Lorraine Bustamante as Mr. Joseph Jackson concentrates on correcting her pages. (Paulson)

While searching through piles and piles of pages, Bradley West wonders how he will make deadline. (Paulson)

"This is the life!" murmurs Jennifer Brown as she relaxes while writing body copy. (Paulson)

Hamp sure is an awesome guy
He's our teacher, that's no lie!

I love those sandals, they're so cool.
When they flip and flop, I could just drool!

Hamp sure is an impressive guy,
Even when he forgets to wave goodbye!

He's so cool in every way,
Although we're tested every day!

So I'm a opportunist, yes it's true
I'm after those points, from wonderful you!

Hamp's real tall and he's got a beard.
If you didn't know him, you'd think him weird!

He shows a movie nearly every week,
It lets old Fred catch up on sleep!

Our paper's due and that's a drag.
Had to read a book and it made me gag!

When Hamp talks he talks real slow,
Jen can paint her nails and watch them grow!

Treasure hunt is quite a gas
That is how you pass this class!

The girls all think Hamp's real cute,
All those muscles, what a brute!

I hope this rap don't make you shout,
I really don't want to be thrown out!

One more thing I've got to say
Hey Mr. Hamp. Happy Birthday!!

While Ms. Kolber is lecturing, two students sit and listen.

Hard at work, George Alvaraz writes a story for the Pegasus.

Keeping students and faculty informed of the latest news, the Buena paper, Pegasus, was very busy.

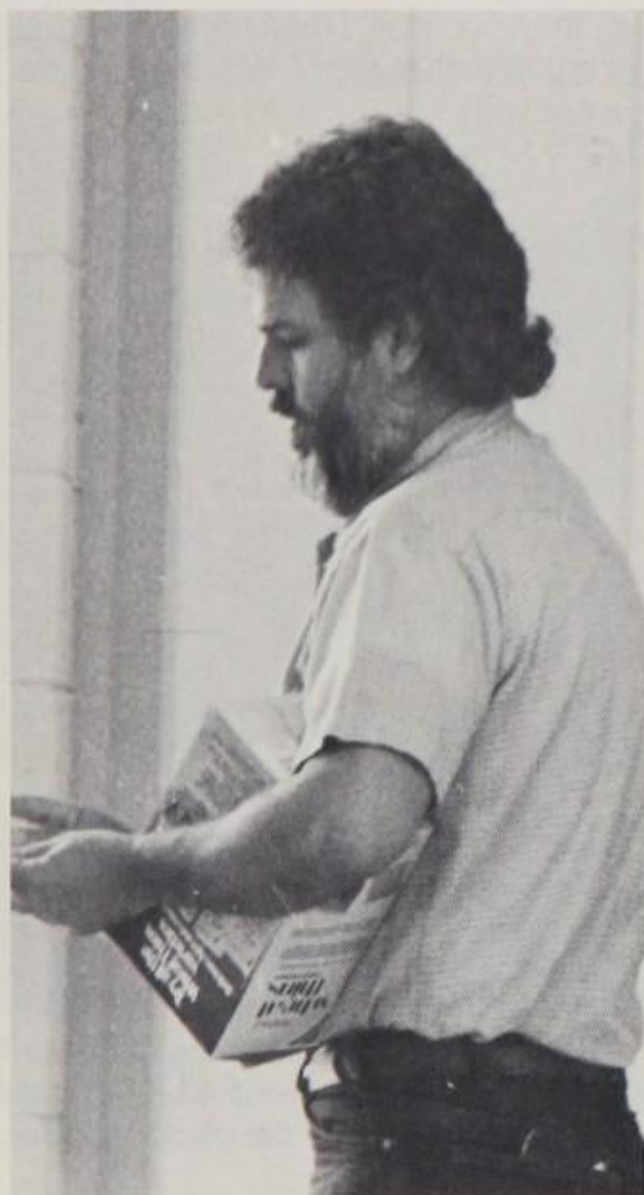

Pegasus was put out monthly because of the many hard working staff members. When asked what she enjoyed most about the Pegasus, Liz Williams replied, "I love to do sports, especially football. I love to interview the football players. Other than football, I really enjoy working for the paper and I like the people I work with."

Proud to represent the Pegasus staff, Deidra Lawrence and Liz Williams stand and pose for the photographer.

LEADERSHIP IN ACTION!

The President's Club had a busy year due to fundraisers and other activities such as: candy sales, car washes and other fundraisers. The President's Club is made up of presidents of all major clubs and departments.

Clubs included are: FBLA, DECA, NHS, NAHS, Applied Tech, C.O.E., French, Spanish, German, Latin, Chess, Diving, Drama, Med-start, Rotary, Pegasus, Pep Club, Key Club, Speech and Debate, SADD, Student Council, VICA-Photo, and last but not least the Yearbook Staff.

When asked about her favorite part of President's Club, Misty Hammond replied, "I especially enjoyed working on the Rush Day project."

When asked about her feelings toward the President's Club, Jody Thalheimer said, "Working in President's Club is a very enjoyable and rewarding experience." Mrs. Catherine Miller remarked that the members are very responsible and a joy to work with.

CHECK-OUT THIS CHECK-MATE!

Coach Jim Sprigg gives critical instruction on playing strategies at a weekly Friday meeting.

Ruthless winning was the way the Chess Club played the game of chess. Those people who are gutsy, intelligent, and, of course, patient make the best chess players.

The Chess Club attended tournaments involving other high schools, one of which was the Amphi Invitational. They attended other competitions, both at home and away. The October third Regional Championships and the October 17th State Championships were high points of the year.

Chess is an involving game. It helps players develop their logic, reasoning and social skills. The members were willing to teach the game to anyone interested in learning it. The only requirement was paying $2.00 in dues. Sponsor Jim Sprigg invited all interested to join. (Fulford)

HABLAS ESPANOL

The Spanish Club helped students foster a relationship with the Spanish language and its customs.

The Spanish Club held many fundraisers that helped them better understand the Spanish culture. Some fundraising activities were: holding a dance, selling candy, yogurt, and chips. They also collected canned goods to send to Agua Prieta.

The enormous event that everyone awaited was the trip to Matzatlan which lasted a week. There, they took a break from the dry desert.

A point system was kept that indicated who completed the necessary criteria for the trip. Points were accumulated by participating in activities sponsored by the Spanish Club.

Jenni Brown states, "I like being involved with the community and the club is a very good way to utilize people like me for that reason." (Calindas)

The German Club was an active part of Buena High School. It was fun not only for the club members, but also for nonmembers.

One activity that everybody liked was the exchange of students between Germany and Buena. The German students came in the month of April while Buena sent its students to Germany in June. In order to match living standards and habits for each guest, there was a computer compatibility scan drawn up. This proved to be very effective.

The exchange students were taken to many places. They visited the Grand Canyon, Disneyland, Tombstone, and Douglas. They saw different places and were excited about them.

Not only did the club sponsor the exchange program, but they also held other activities for fundraising. They raised money mostly for trips and parties. They held an "Oktoberfest" in the east campus courtyard and sold different types of German foods. During Christmas, the club sold advent calendars.

Mrs. Linda Bredel, the club sponsor, commented, "The club is very cooperative and active. Everyone's excited about the trip to Germany. This may be the best German Club yet." (Calindas)

SALVETE MON AMIE

The Latin Club and the French Club were for students who were enrolled in one of the languages or who had previously taken courses in one of those areas.

The members met every other week to talk about their new ideas. The Latin Club, for example, talked about their upcoming Latin Convention. The most exciting part of being in these clubs was the field trips involved. They went on the trips to learn more about that particular language.

Later in April, the Latin Club took part in the Arizona Junior Classical League Convention held at the University of Arizona. Members competed in an academic dress contest, a poster contest, circus maximus, Latin exams, and Roman games.

Vice-President of the French Club, Patty Irons, said, "The best part of being in a club is the trips and parties." (Calindas)

REACHING OUT

To make the meetings more fun and worthwhile, Patty Irons and Kendra Hiatt make faces to liven up the group. (Noga)

Being a sponsor with the Peer Support Group doesn't mean you have to know everything. Here, Mrs. Carlson gets stumped with a question during a meeting. (Noga)

The Peer Supporters are: Cindy Agolicol, Nicole Balzarini, Heather Bates, Christine Bell, Yvonne Blanco, Tammy Bradshaw, Jenni Brown, Leisa Burger, Krissy Butt, Frederic Calindas, Harold Dalton, Danielle Devine, Bryan Fulford, Gia DiGiovanni, Mike Gorday, Keta Griggs, Kelly Grundy, Michelle Handley, John Hays, Kendra Hiatt, Lee Holtry, Patty Irons, Sherri Irvin, Reggie Johnson, Brian Kennedy, Sheree Kroemer, Kathy Leavenworth, Stacy Love, Angie Mason, Cheryl McCabe, Tammy McMains, Wendy Mercer, Lisa Olcott, Jennifer Quintilliani, Carol Robb, Tracy Rockwell, Michelle Schultz, Maelien Shipman, Laura Stahl, Natalie Strohmeier, Jodi Thalheimer, Amy Thorson, Diane Trotter, Beth Wilson.

The Peer Support Group was a new program at Buena. Although it was neither a class nor a club, the organization was developed to help the entire school.

Have you ever moved to a new school and had nobody to turn to? Were you ever lost and needed help to find a class? Did you ever have problems and all your friends were busy? These are the problems the group was there to help with. They were your friends when you were in need. Most students were better able to open up and feel comfortable with a fellow student. One at least of the group was available to listen to any student with problems.

All the members had to fill out an application, have good teacher recommendations, and then be picked to go on to training. The training lasted through the summer and the first three weeks of school. They also went to a retreat at the Discovery Ranch in Ramsey Canyon. This retreat helped them learn more about each other, and work as a group. They experienced first hand, "therapy in action" during the retreat. One of the members, Frederic Calinas, said, "It wasn't only a fun field trip, but a great learning experience."

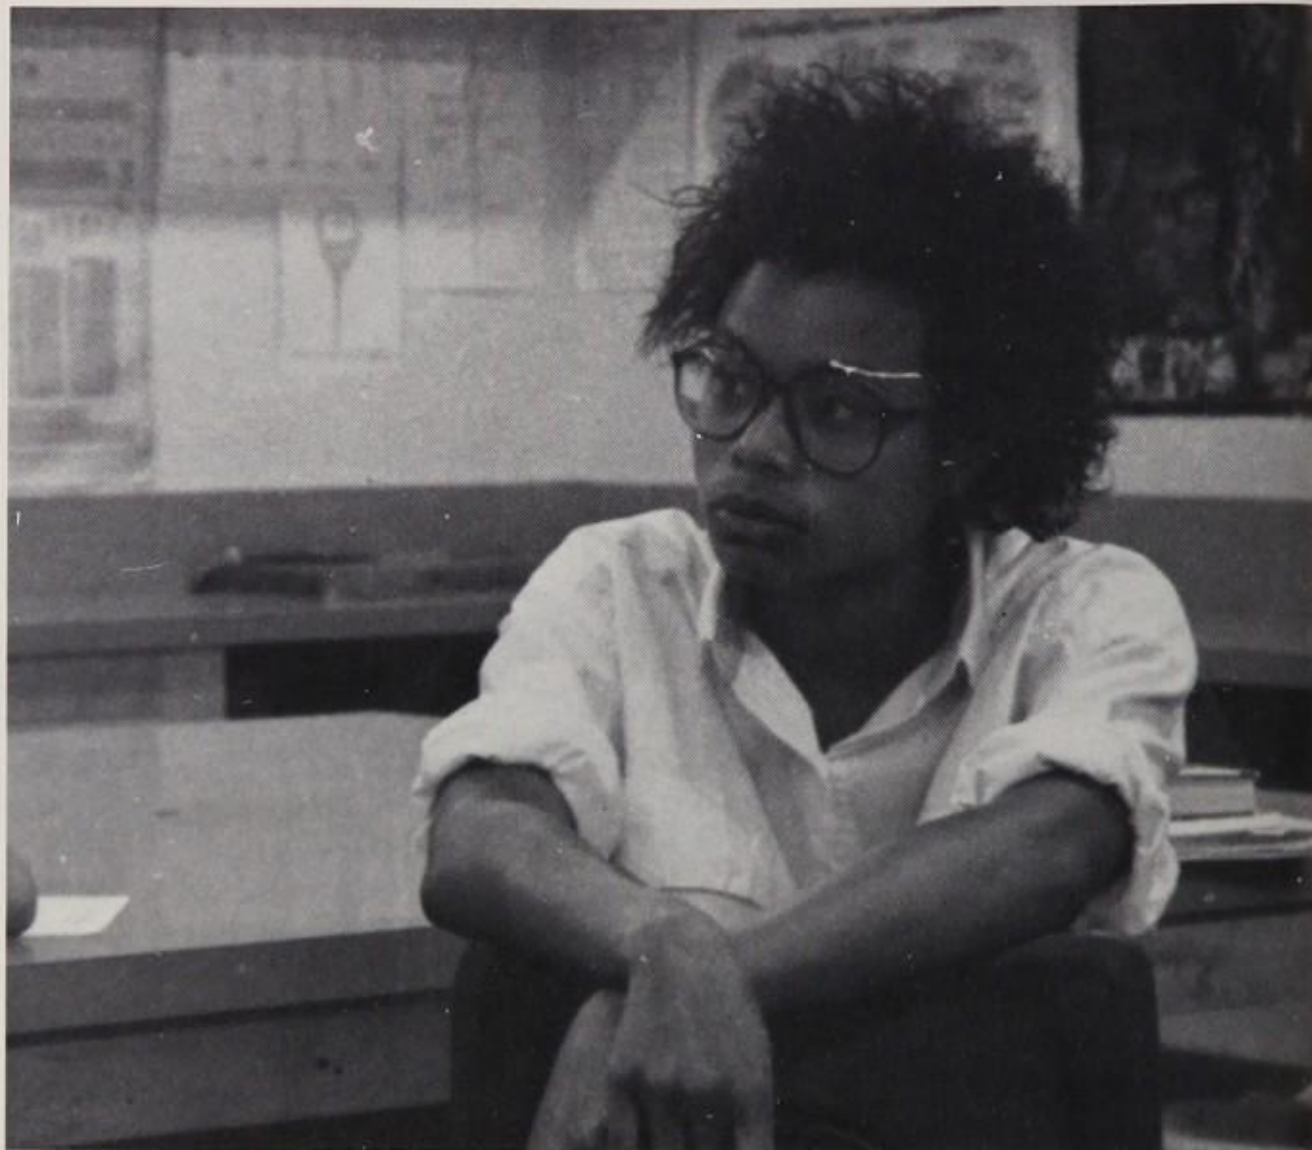

Mrs. Elaine Carlson and Mrs. Cheryl Hiatt were the sponsors behind this new and spectacular idea. Mrs. Hiatt remarked about the program, "This dedicated group of students willingly gave many hours of their time to assist others. Buena High School should be very proud of them." (Calindas)

"For The Health Of It!!"

Concern for our future and their own led some of the students who had Health Career Science classes to join Med Start. Not only did Med Start offer the members a chance for scholarships, but it kept them occupied with arranging and holding a blood drive, raising money for the children's center and holding meetings once a week for other various causes.

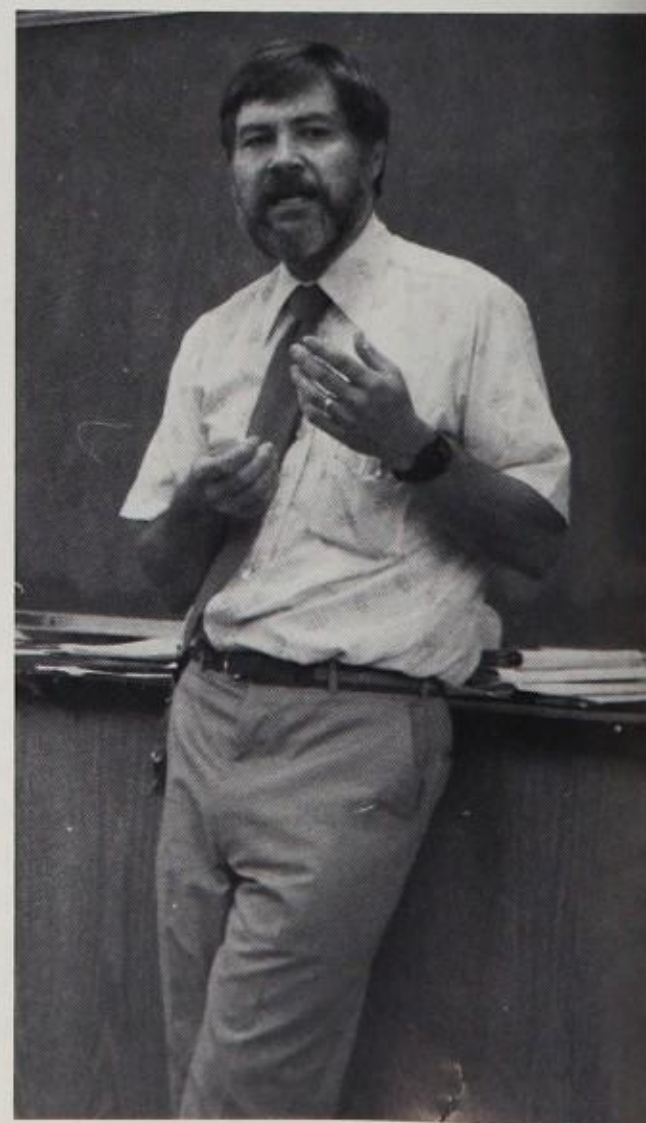

The blood drive, was held on December 9. In order to be able to donate blood, a student had to weigh 110 lbs. and meet additional specific requirements.

Med Start accomplished their goal of raising money for the Children's center by selling candy around the school and holding car washes. (Bishop)

Enraptured by this week's plans, Dominga Fauver loosens up and listens attentively. (Schultz)

Enthusiasm sparkles to life in Holly Bolyard's eyes during a meeting. (Schultz)

Officers were: Presidents Sherree Knoemer, Jill Jennia, Dominga Fauver, Vice-Presidents, Derek Leonard, Kristine Toguchi, Ray Parke, Secretaries, Christin Durand, Tonya Robbins, Cheryl McCabe, Treasurers Tracy Tate, Daniele Piar, Keren Bias, Parliamentarians Lori Donahue, Becky Borker, Robin Bruce, Reporters Alie Buckmire, Tanya Heeder, James Norman, Historians Dwayne Hodges, Holly Bolyard, Kristi Lemons. (Stoddard)

KEEPING UP!!

Classroom representation is also very important. This is the job of the Buena High School senate. The senate was made up of representatives elected in their second hours. These reps. then go to the bi-weekly meetings, which were held in the cafeteria. At these meetings the senators were brought up to date with the happenings at the school. Student body vice president Brian Jones is the head of the senate.

The senate is also involved in such activities, as the annual air jam, and various other fundraisers.

"The senate is here to help students keep up with the local happenings in their school, and in their community. I feel it is a very worthy program that should be continued," commented Brian Jones about his feelings on the senate. (Flores)

Thought and preparation are a necessary part of every senate meeting. Michelle Batholomew, is ready. (Flores)

CLUB CONTROL!

ICC, or inter club council, is the board that regulates all, and any activities, that a club performs.

Controlling candy sales, so that no two clubs are selling the same kind of candy at the same time, is one of the activities the council is responsible for. Dances, and fund raisers, are another way the council controls the clubs.

The council's chairperson is Melissa Ply. The members of the club are the Vice-presidents of all of the clubs. Mrs. Kathy Miller is the sponsor for the group.

"I liked the organization, behind the clubs various activities," responded Yolanda Turner, when asked for her feelings about the council. (Flores)

Inter council club officers are: Melissa Ply, Chairwoman, Keith Rabb, Jackie Chapman, and Chandra Shultz. (Flores)

Note taking is a very important part of every meeting, Vicky Lindogan, and Michelle Batholomew take their notes to share with their clubs. (Flores)

LEADERS IN THE MAKING!!

Dedication and hard work, are two of the qualities needed to be a student council representative. The 1987-88 Buena High School Student Council was made up of forty representatives, ten from each of their respective classes. These representatives were elected by the votes of their entire class. Mrs. Kathy Miller was the sponsor of the class this year.

The student council headed up many of the school activities. Pep rallies, the senate, and the ICC were a few of the many responsibilities the student council took on.

Student body officers were elected from the entire school's population. The officers for the 1987-88 school year were Cindy Allen, Pres. Brian Jones, V.P. Yvonne Blanco, Secretary. Melissa Ply, Treasurer. Curtis Lenio, Parl. and Barry Berman, Historian.

"They are an elite group of individuals," responded Mrs. Miller about the group. (Flores)

A helping hand is always great to have. Tom Richter lends his to Ty Lainhart to open a card he received from one of his many secret admirers. (Flores)

Thinking Our Way To The Top

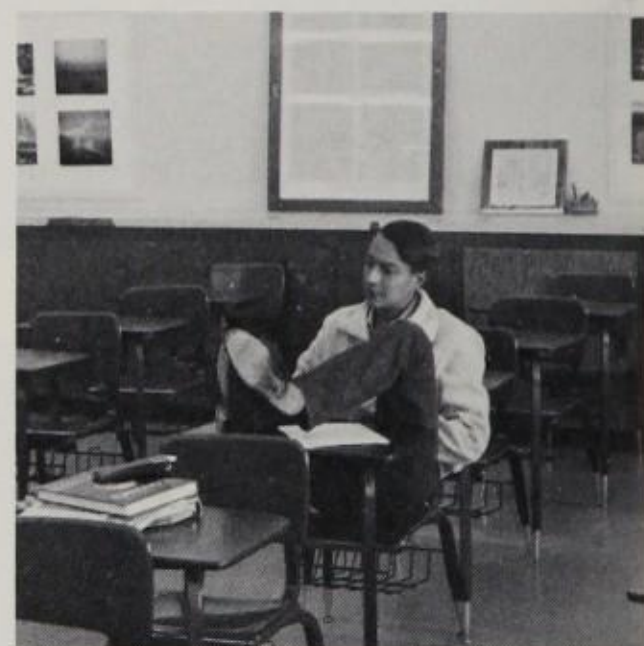

"It is like a big trivial pursuit game," said Nicole Bergenon, a member of the Academic Decathlon. At their meetings the members quiz each other on certain subjects like economics, history, current events, math and other important subjects. Mr. Weiss is the club's sponsor. Near the end of the year the club went to Florida for an Academic Decathlon contest. All of the members of the club have shown intelligence and a willingness to have fun. We hope there will be more members when the club starts up again. Another good prospect of joining the club is that you can get a letter if you work hard enough. (Hopkins)

Painting Our Way To New Heights

The members of the Art Honor Society include: Kara Festa, Nicole Richardson, Faith DeVeaux, Holly Bolyard, Chris Bodie, Lee Brinker, Jennifer Coleman, Stephen Dove, Danelle Duran, John Merritt, Jennifer Nichols, Malia Stevens, Duc Vu, Andy Ward, Cathy Wright. (Hopkins)

Although the Art Honor Society was small, they were able to get a lot of things done. Painting windows of local businesses, for example, was one of the many activities Art Honor Society participated in. The main purpose of the Art Honor Society was to put up creative displays around the school. "We want to do more stuff at school to help the teachers," said Mrs. Kim Shipeck. "Some of the kids are not interested in an art career but just want to take art for fun." Of some of the artistic concepts they have learned, one was making an art portfolio. The new members of the club were Holly Bolyard, John Merritt, Cathy Wright, Jennifer Nichols, Malia Stevens, and Duc Vu. (Hopkins)

"Guess what this is!"

"Art in the making!"

GEE! EAT YOUR HEART OUT!

The willingness to act is a necessity in Ms. Mamie Warnick's Drama Club.

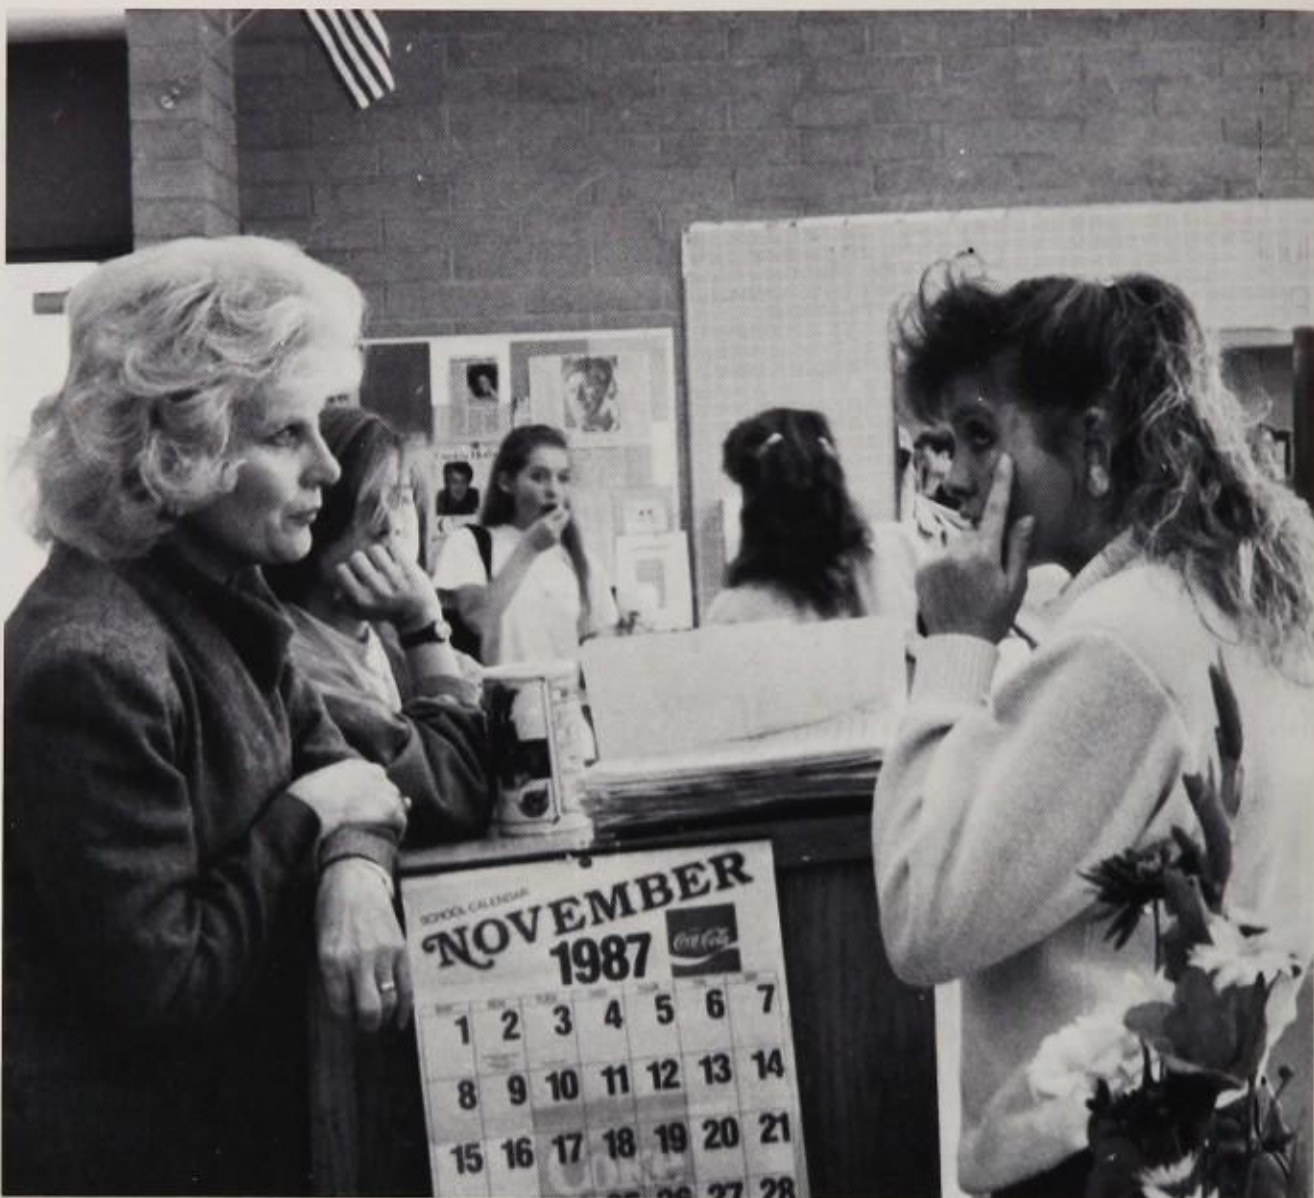

The members make an annual trip to California at the end of the year. During the holiday season, they gave gifts to the needy children of our community.

To be a part of the Drama Club one must pay $5.00 for dues, give a helping hand in selling candy and participate in car washes.

Club officers are: David Dunbar — President, Vicky Parker — Vice President, Bobby Merrit — Treasurer, Phaedra Nielson — Secretary, Dwayne Hodges — Historian, Faith Deveau — Public Relations.

Club members are: Joshua Flurry, Kim Dahl, Sandra Domingiz, Georgeanna Adams, Kevin Hawkins, Angela Day, Maggie Janecki, Chris Spalding, Tessa Brock, Melisa McCawley, Kelly Hale, Robert Worth, Thomas Valdez, Leisa Guftafuson, Leah Stojanowski, Kelly Fleming, Sherri Irvin, Jennifer Chinn, Amelia Wilson, Stephanie Stater, A. ACCEPTING STUDENTS FOR THEMSELVES

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a club that accepts Buena High School students for what they are.

During FCA meetings on activity lunches they sometimes have pizza parties. During the year FCA sends some of the club members to a retreat with the club helping to pay part of the way.

Club officers are: Tracy Kennard — Co-President, Yolande Turner — Co-President, Chris Spaulding — Vice President, Marc Klepzig — Treasurer, Dawn Horn — Publicity Chairman, Gene Horn — Secretary. (J. B.)

While Traci Kennard and Yolande Turner discuss being in FCA, they enjoy the humor of the conversation. (Stoddard)

ENGINES AND MORE

Mr. George Janssen, the advisor of VICA Auto taught this class in 2-hour blocks. The first class lasted through 1st and 2nd hour. The second during 3rd and 4th hour. Requirements for membership were to pay VICA dues and have completed the basic course of auto mechanics. The extensive work the class did on cars not only helped in their personal lives, but also made them ready for state and regional competition in this field.

The 1st and 2nd hour officers were Micheal Lecuyer: president, Ronald Bowsley: vice president, Jeffery Hains: treasurer, Joe Vega: secretary, Patrick Archer: representative.

The 3rd and 4th hour officers were Kaylee Davis: president, Rick Raley: treasurer, Bill Rockwell: vice president, Jeff Betancourt: secretary, John Dechant: representative. (Myers)

PRINTING BEYOND

Paper often gets stuck in the printing press. These students try their hardest to unjam the machine. (Hammond)

Cleanliness is important in proper handling of materials. James Dodson cleans his printing paper. (Hammond)

The VICA Graphics were high school students who liked to work at graphing and were in a more advanced class. They paid dues in graphics and participated in many activities. They participated in regional and state leadership and skill competitions.

When asked why he enjoyed teaching VICA Graphics, Mr. Richard Perry remarked, "Students learn best by going through the following process: tell them what the task will be; have them read the details from an instruction manual; show them how to do the task; and then have them perform the task. I attempt to employ this sequential process with my students at all times."

"Teenage students have the capacity to do far more than they realize. I try to place my students in learning and doing situations that cause them to perform above the norm, thereby realizing their capabilities. Real life jobs are performed under the pressures of deadlines and adverse conditions. Students graduating from my program with entry level skill must learn to work under these pressures to prepare them for the job world." (Myers)

Much preparation and hard work go into a printing project. David Tokach, William Johnson, and Robert Lowell work on their assignments. (Hammond)

Club members include: Gary Beaver, Gary Decker — president, James Dodson, David Farrel — vice president, Stephanie Huntley — parliamentarian, William Johnson, Robert Lowell, Dyron Mack — reporter, Charles Mims, David Moss — treasurer, Joseph Ratliff, Michele Ruzicka, Darlene Self, Stephanie Smith — secretary, Daniel Southard, David Tokach, Melinda Vogelgesang, Melissa Vogelgesang, and Christopher Waters. (Hammond)

HIGHEST LEVEL OF SPIRIT!

What was the source of Buena's true spirit? The most accurate answer anyone could come up with was the Pep Club. The Pep Club promoted exuberance and pride throughout the school with their crazy antics. The club had exactly 297 members consisting of students, teachers, and parents. The club attended home and away games to offer their support to our athletes.

To support their trips to away games, the Pep Club sponsored dances, sold candy and sold posters. To become a member a yearly fee of $3 was required. The club members were also able to purchase Pep Club sweatshirts.

The club was sponsored by Mr. John Birt, who kept the club on its feet throughout the year. One member said, "I loved being in Pep Club because we supported the athletes." (Scholtz)

Pep Club Members are Melissa Ply, Barry Berman, Bryan Fulford, Nicole Balzarini, Daune Wilson, Nicole Bradford, Chris Kaeppel, Shannon Fitzpatrick, Namieka Mead, Christina Presnell, Shana Hunt, THE KEY TO COMMUNICATING

The Club officers include Mark Klepzig, Diane Richter, Michelle Handley and Stacey Love.

Key Club was the largest service organization not only in the school but also in the nation. It was connected with the Kiwanis Club International. The clubbers worked to fulfill the needs of their school and community.

They served the community by selling air show programs, giving teachers apples and sponsoring the haunted house at the community center.

The club taught responsibility and leadership through the services it provided for the community. Some of the Key club members were outstanding leaders in other school activities.

Some members received scholarships offered by the local Kiwanis Club to members who actively participated in the club's activities. One member said, "Key Club is a blast." (Scholtz)

Key Club members include Ian Christiansen, Gia DeGiovanni, Chris Meyers, Joe Barno, John McLeod, Leah Stojanowski, Meg Gross, Kathy Stevenson, Noe Barrera, Tanya Adams, Georgeanna Adams, Barry Berman, Traci Kennard, Tina Johnson, Jennifer Brown, Leah Goski, Michelle

BIGGER AND BETTER

The Speech and Debate team was nearly double the size of last year's team. It had many new members and along with the old pros, the team had a well-rounded team of experience. The newer members were able to gain experience while the older members brought in first and second places in debate tournaments.

Fundraisers consisted mainly of the Argus poster sales. These fundraisers went to pay for the overnight trip to Phoenix and a two night trip to Las Vegas, Nevada in November.

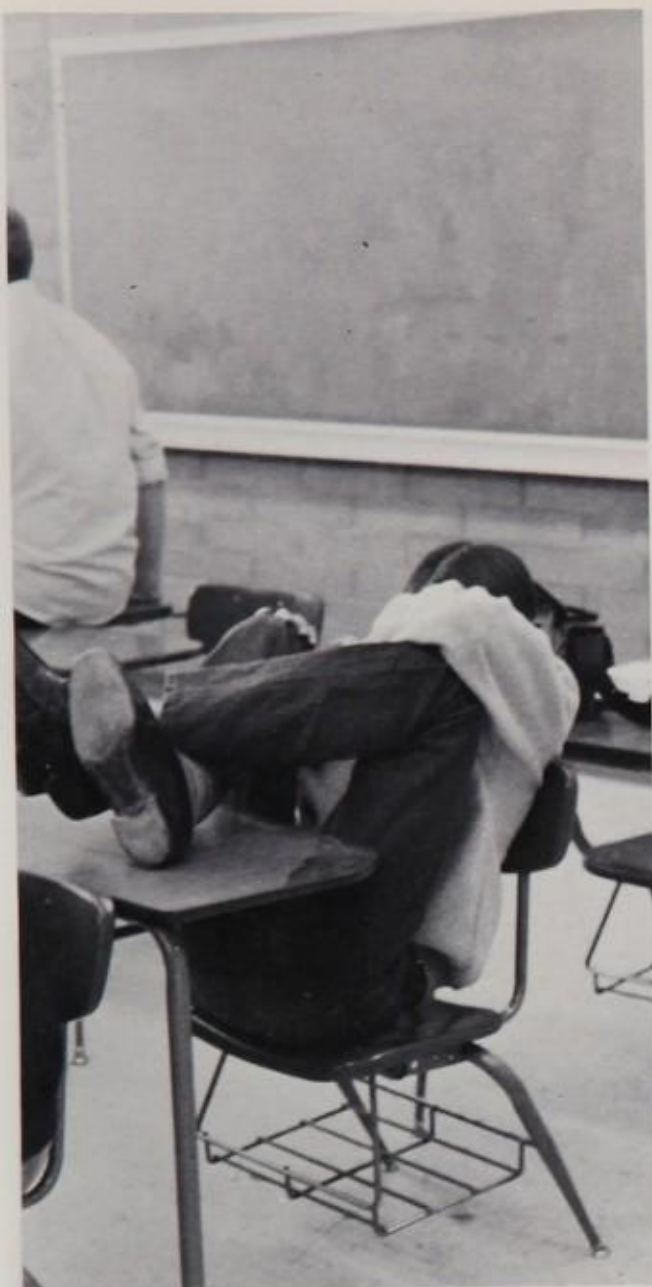

Speech and Debate members learned to express themselves more effectively during competition. The tournament's competitions ranged from duo acting to impromptu speeches. Newcomer Chris Mrozinski commented, "I'm not really looking for awards. I'm just looking to have some fun and sharpen my speech skills at the same time." (Bishop)

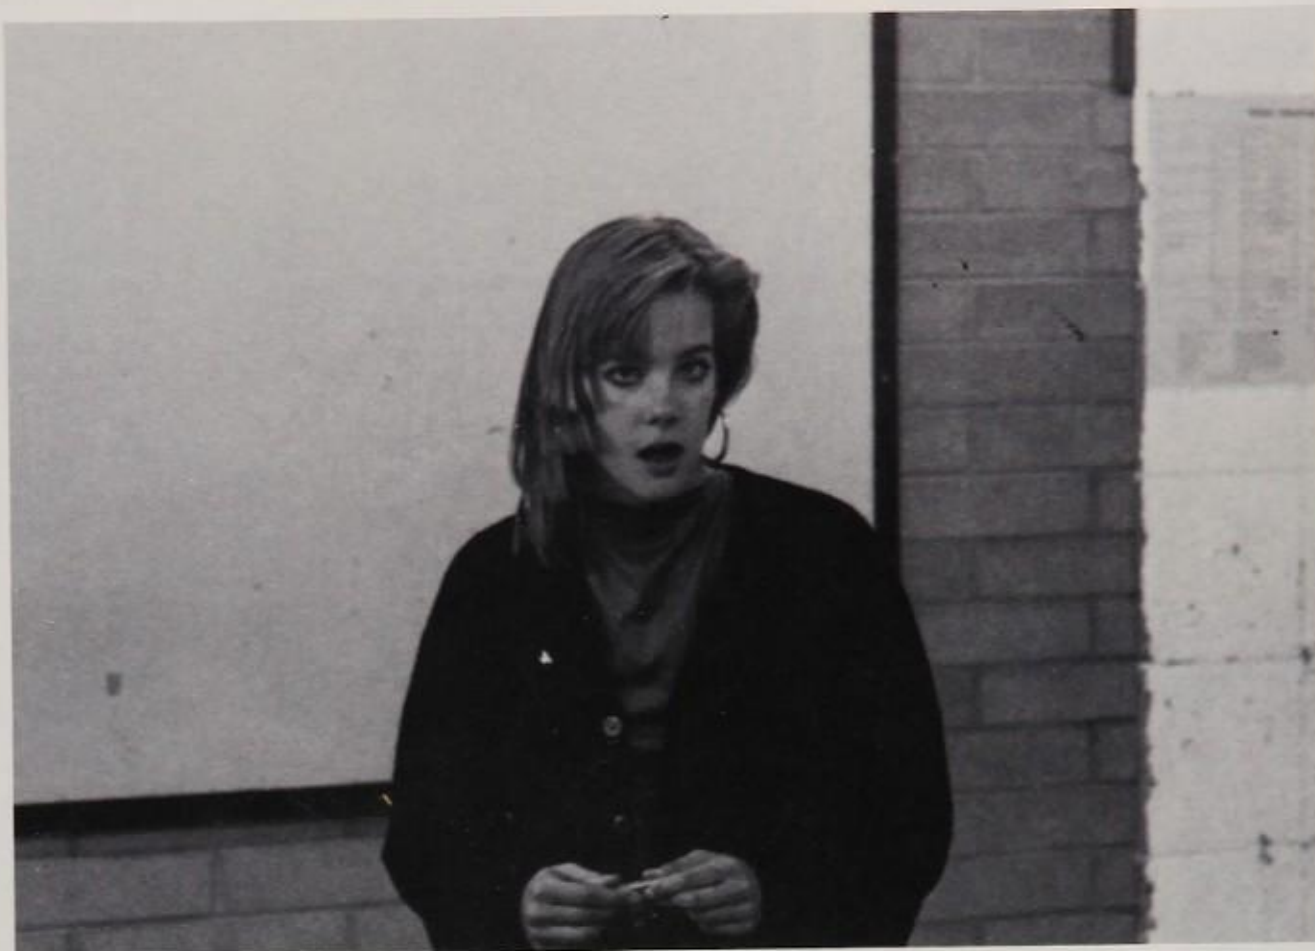

Slyly licking something off of his teeth, Kevin Bertrem becomes aware that his friends know more than he thinks they know. (Mrozinski)

Mr. John Birt gallantly struts in front of the podium before gathering the members together for a practice. (Mrozinski)

Being a debater doesn't exactly mean you are outgoing shows Ian Christenson. (Mrozinski)

"I'm so excited!" exclaims senior Chris Mrozinski as she shows the lively, individual characteristics debating brings out in a person. (Bishop)

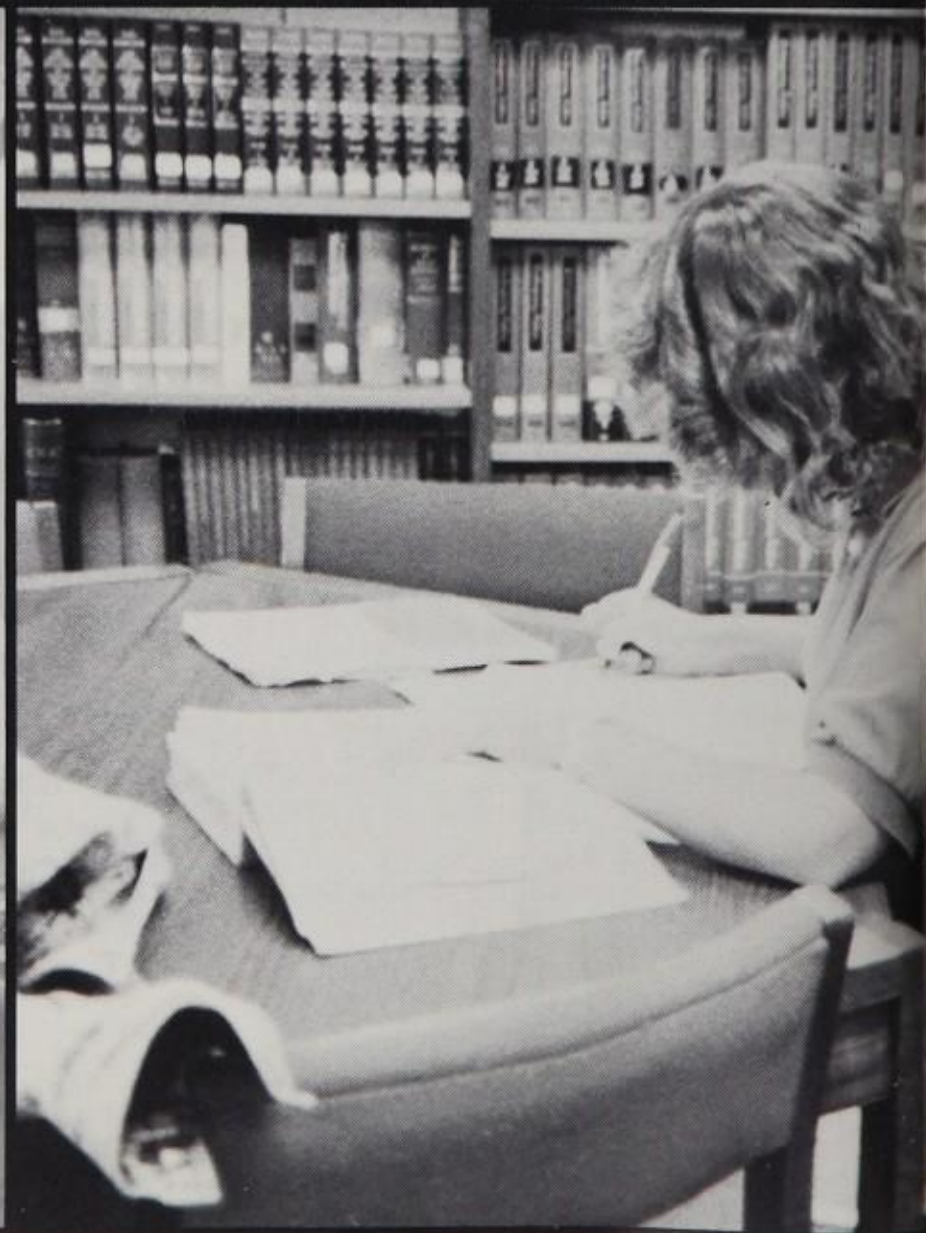

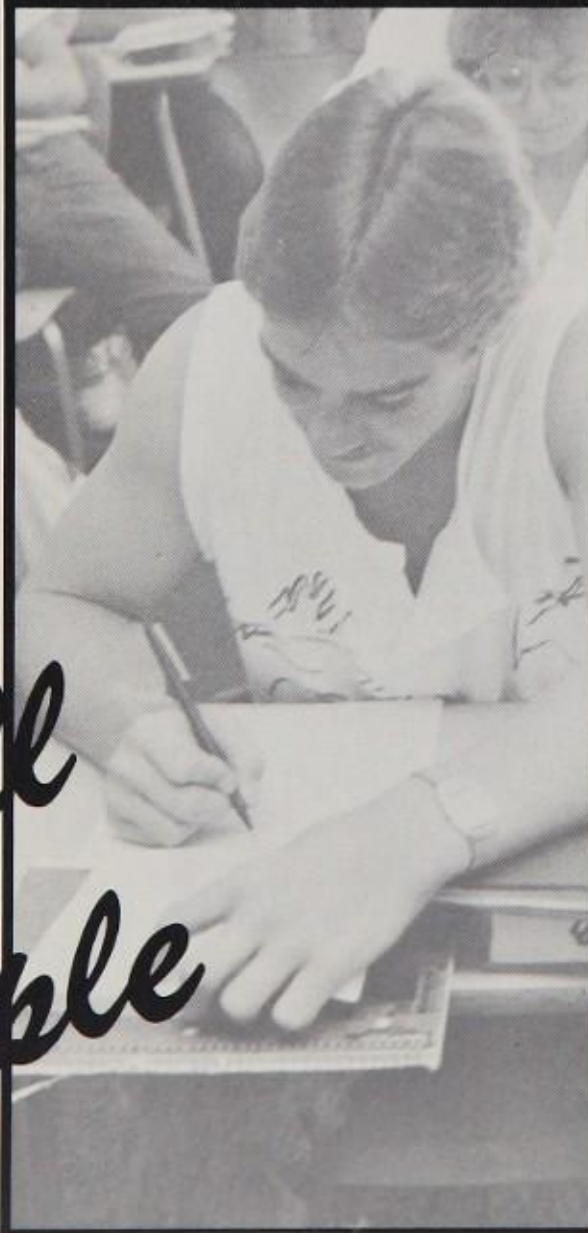

Speech and Debate members were: Ian Christenson, Kevin Bertrem, Shane Ham, Eric Frahm, Mr. John Birt, Heather Bates, Nicole Begeron, Chris Mrozinski, Mark Moffet, Holly Smith.

NATURE ... EARTH ... PEOPLE!

The Science Department, taught by Mr. Bealer's award winning staff, helped students understand the sciences better. A discipline related club was recently formed to develop inquiring minds, involve students in field research, and pursue scientific investigation.

Teachers reached out to students through enthusiasm for careers in the many fields of scientific research.

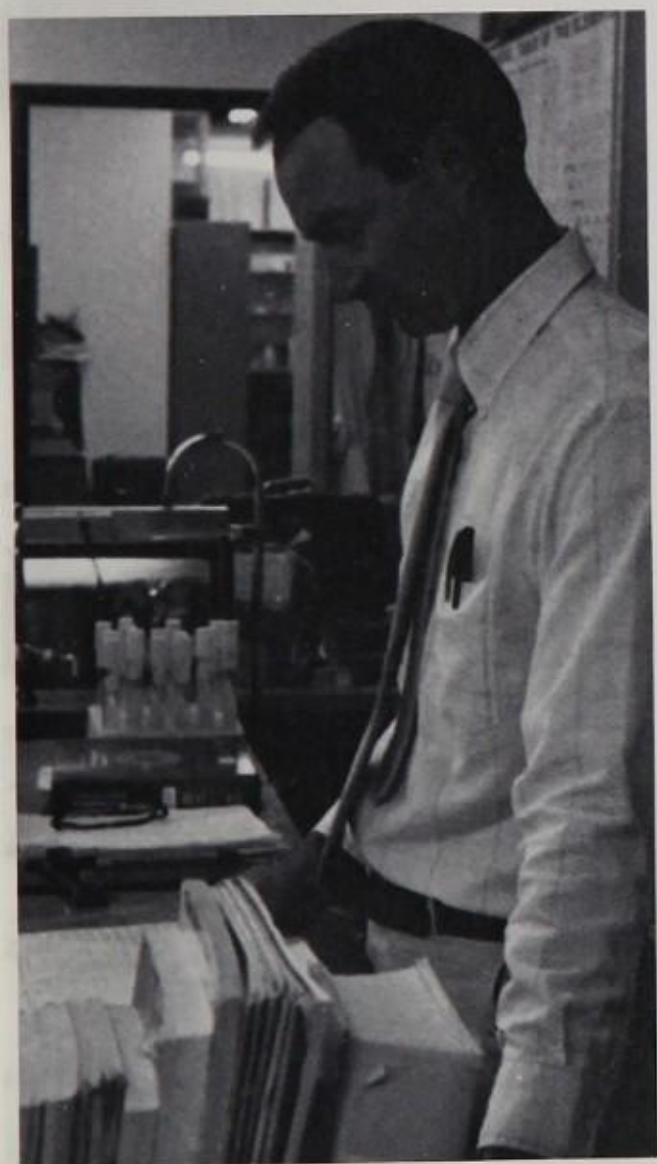

Understanding life and related physical principles is the heart of the sciences. In the lab, students practice application, and apply knowledge for real problems of the future.

At the end of 6th period class these science students can't wait for the bell to ring. (Paulson)

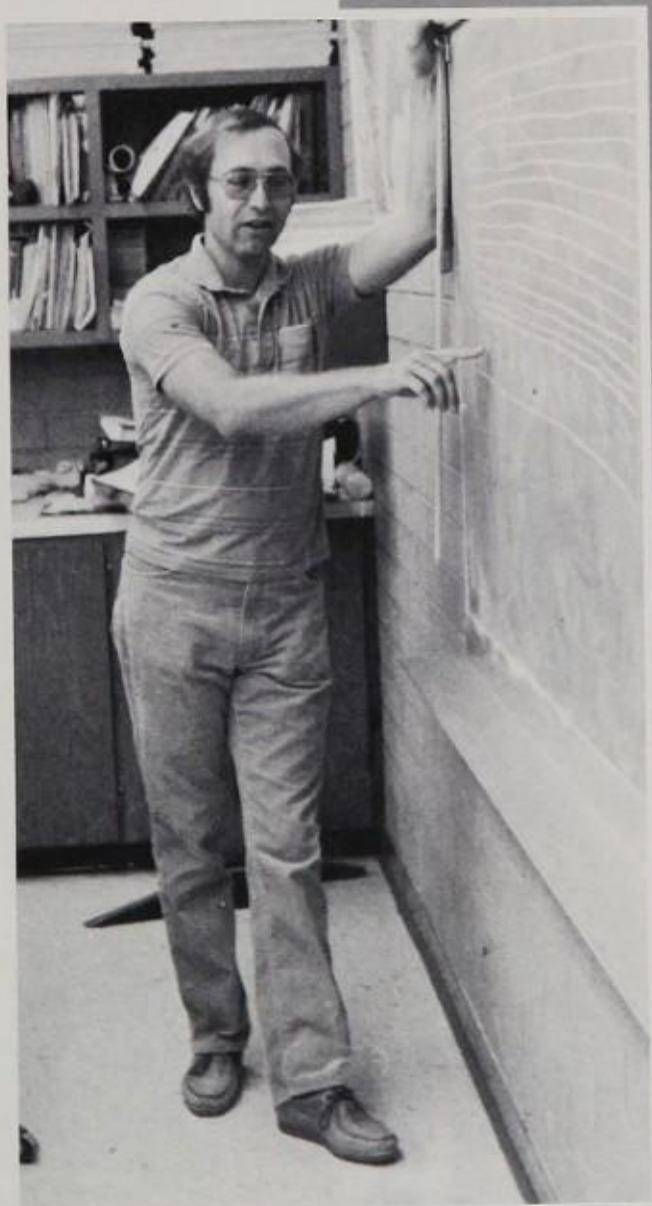

Science tests can be very difficult. These science students work hard to remember the correct answers. (Gill)

Before the second bell is a good time for conversation. These students tell one another about their daily events.

In teaching science much extra planning is involved, Mr. Larry Moody takes one last look at his lesson plans. (Gill)

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT BETTER THAN EVER

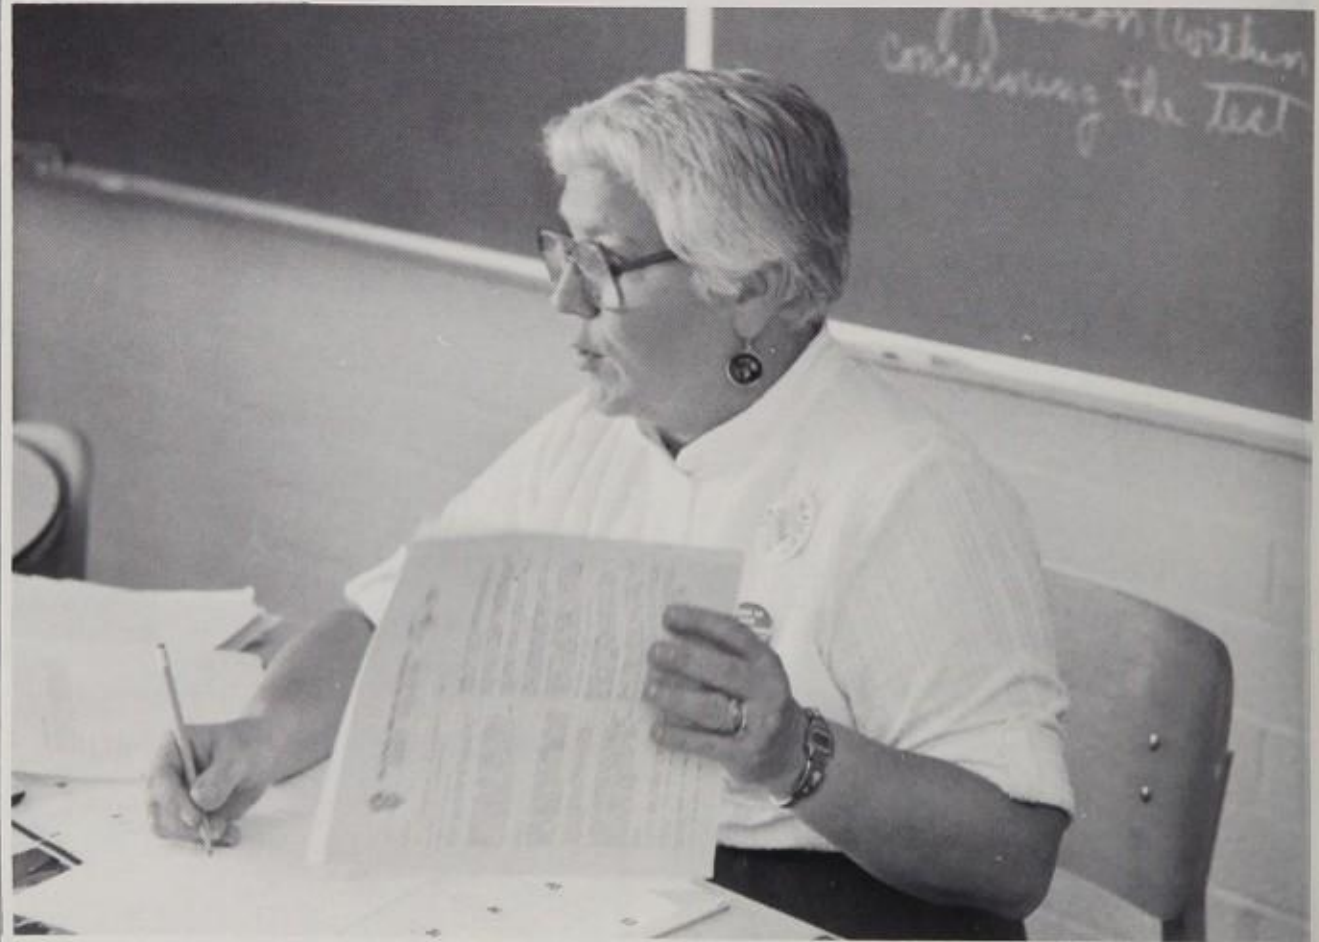

The Buena High School English Department achieved many goals and set new standards. Mrs. Mamie Warnick, the department chairperson, was very excited and optimistic about the future. In an effort to increase the curricula, the English Department incorporated the use of guest speakers such as Rene Lipinski, a speech therapist, members of the Social Studies Department, business executives from Sierra Vista, and military officers from Ft. Huachuca.

"When a student graduates from Buena High School, he should have a good knowledge and balance of literature and English skills," stated Warnick.

Mrs. Warnick, along with other excellent English teachers, has helped students succeed in a world where English skills play an important role. (West)

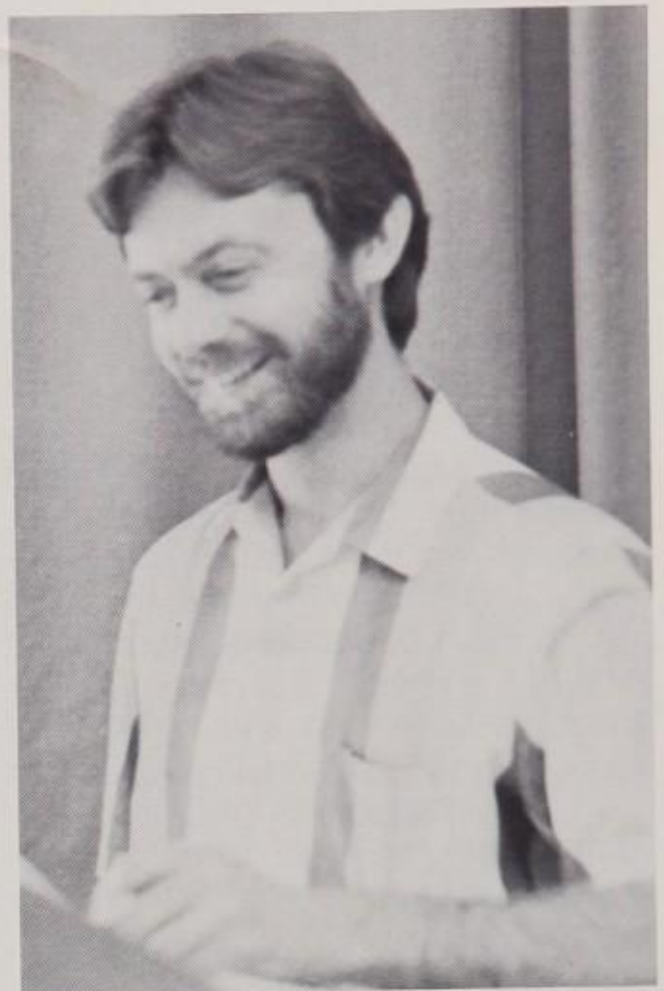

English teachers are: Gordon Berry, John Birt, Gus Bock, Sarah Coddens, Janet Coppola, Jane Davis, Karen DelVecchio, Suzanne DeRosier, Gloria Fauver, Cindy Haller, Doug Hamp, Helen Harris, Dawn Hess, Joe Jackson, Suzanne Kemerly, Joanne Krause, Socorro Paul, Lisa Shoenhals, Deborah Street, Virginia Tribe, Mamie Warnick, Dick Williams, Jerry Winslow, and Lowell Mowery.

Stuck in class!!! Teachers want out of school just as much as students. Mrs. Krause longs to be outside. (Paulson)

Overcome by her find in an English book, Mrs. Helen Harris can barely control her joy. (Paulson)

While pointing to an important statement on the blackboard, Mr. Doug Hamp looks back to make sure that all of his students are paying attention. (Paulson)

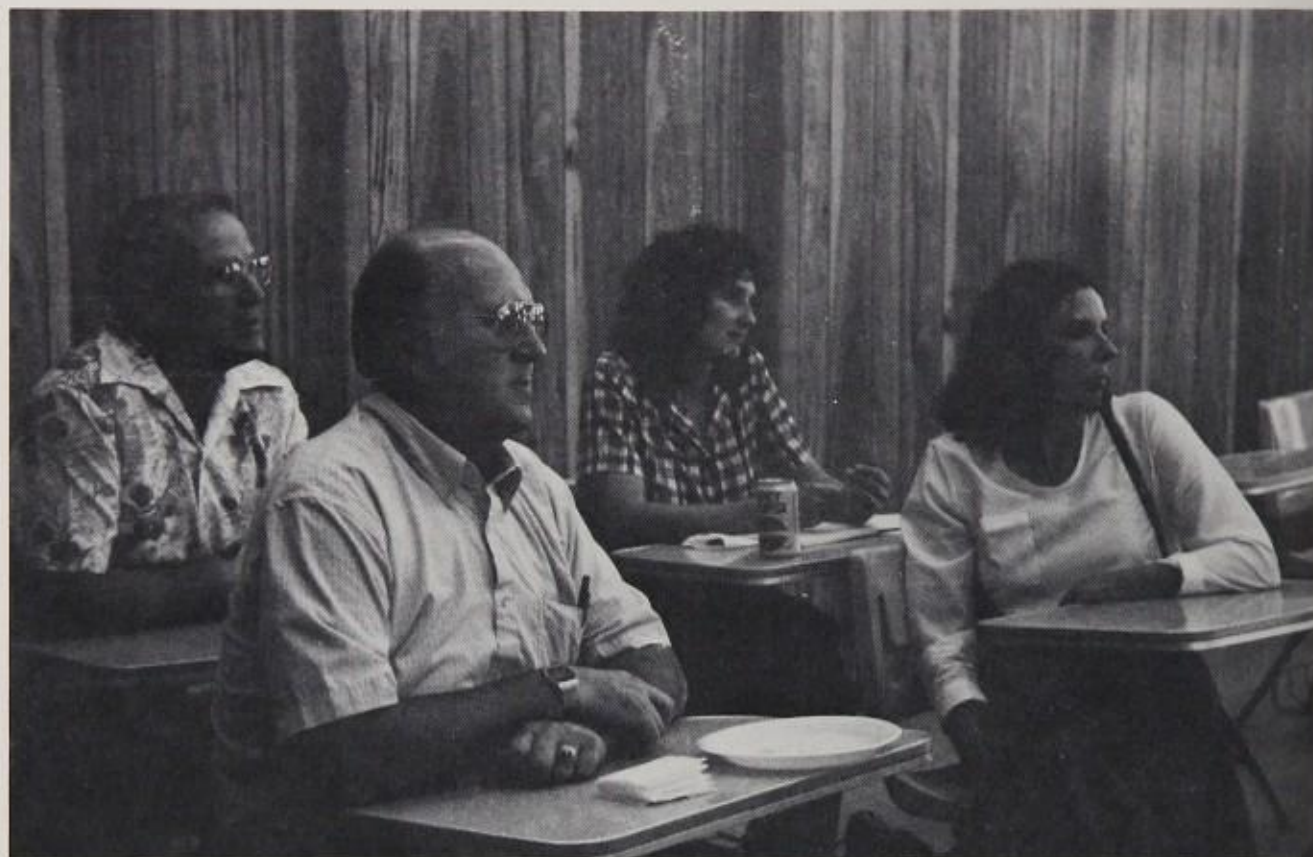

As Mr. Gordon Berry puts a grade in his gradebook, he chuckles at a question posed to him by an A.P. student. (Paulson)

School can be unpredictable. Chris Watson prepares to hear his grade as Mrs. Janet Coppola looks for his test. (Paulson)

SOLVING NEW PROBLEMS

Ranked among the top five math programs in the nation by military academies, the Buena math department has attained new heights. The new arrivals in the math department were Mr. Greg Arnold, Ms. Suzanne Kemerly, Ms. Carolyn Barnes, and Mrs. Sandy Genet. "Buena math students do very well in state colleges," said Rene Prentice, the head of the math department. Buena had one of the finest math programs this year, not only in the state, but throughout the nation. Prentice went on to say that letters of recommendation from math department teachers have been a valuable aid for students applying for college. (Hopkins)

At a typical Math Department gathering, the department members listen attentively. (Paulson)

"Hmm . . . ! I think I'll ponder on that interesting question," thinks Mr. Al Pickard. (Paulson)

The math department meeting is opened with a speech by Mrs. Rene Prentice. (Paulson)

As Mr. Ray Boyuk inquires about the discussion topic, Mr. Bailey Smith takes a few quick notes. (Paulson)

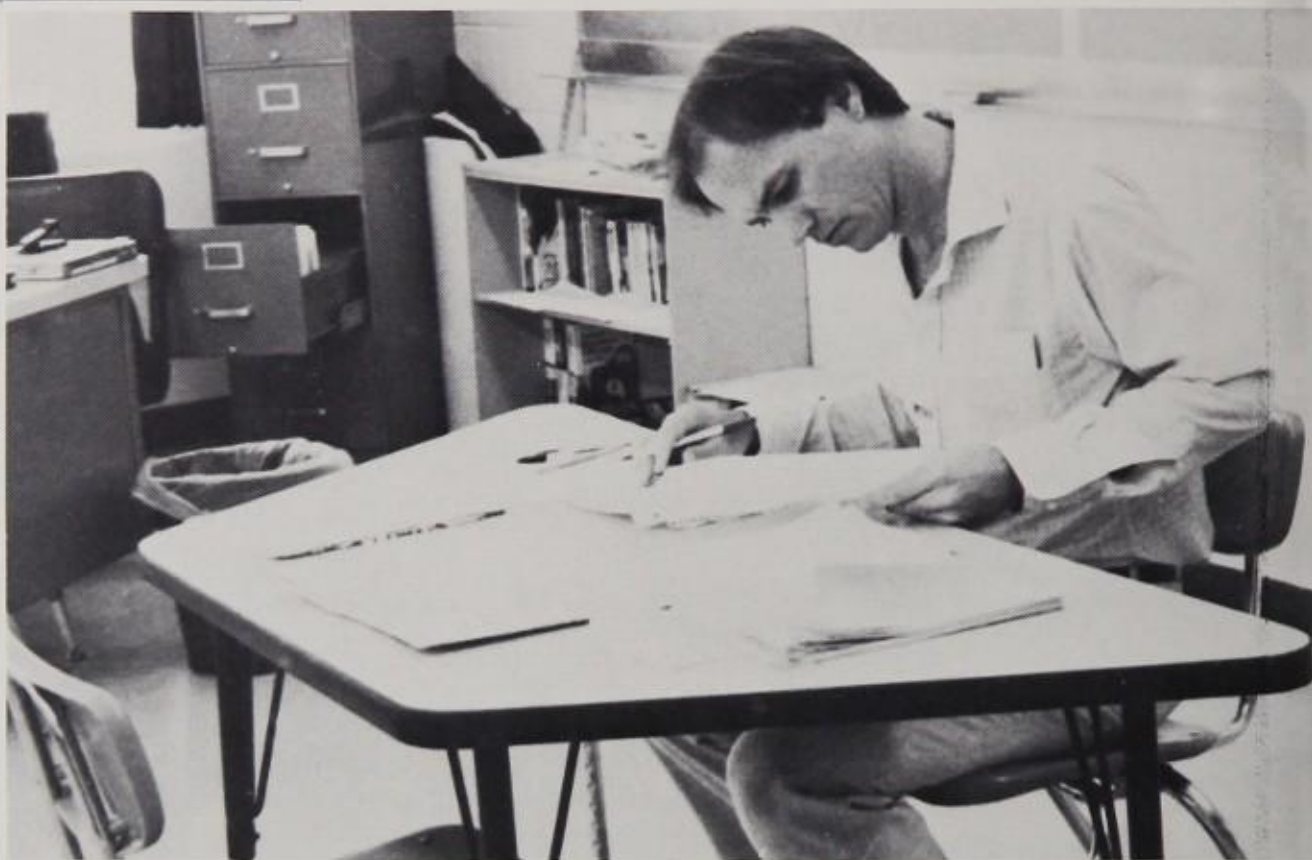

The members of the Math Department are: Mrs. Deanna Baerg, Mrs. Carolyn Barnes, Mr. Ray Boyuk, Mr. Leonard Cephas, Mrs. Sandy Genet, Mrs. Suzanne Kemerly, Mr. Al Pickard, Mrs. Rene Prentice, Mr. Dave Sandquist, Mr. Bailey Smith, Mrs. Iris Surrence and Mrs. Renee Webb.

LEARNING ABOUT THE PAST? ... OURSELVES

Over the course of ninth through twelfth grades, various social studies classes were offered to each individual student. These classes ranged from history, world affairs, free enterprise, and U.S. Constitution to sociology, and psychology. Buena's Social Studies department was superb. "The classes are taught by quality staff," stated Mr. Larry Cummins the head of the Social Studies Dept. A student needs 3.5 credits in order to graduate.

The dept. bases its teaching on the active participation principle. Kids learn through listening, seeing, and doing. The classes these students took will help them in the future to understand society and how it functions. (Persinger)

While staying after school, Mr. Sprigg diligently grades papers. (Flemister)

Even though U.S. History can be tough, some students still find time to have fun. (Flemister)

While taking U.S. Constitution, a student's desk can get quite cluttered. Just ask Dwain Herron. (Flemister)

Students in Mr. Sprigg's class hurry to get an assignment done. (Flemister)

Intensely working students boggle their minds in order to find answers. (Flemister)

ET TOI! ET TU! AY TU! UND DICH!

More than 700 students are enrolled in four languages offered at Buena.

While learning the languages, students are exposed to the culture. During Christmas, the French classes caroled throughout Sierra Vista and sang in French, German, and English. The Spanish classes have supported a Mexican orphanage and made several trips to Mexico during the past year. Some of the classes have gotten together to share cultures. In level I German, and level I Spanish, students brought in food from both cultures and practiced a little of the language too.

An interview with some of the language teachers produced the following comments:

"I think that it is wonderful that so many students at Buena are interested in a foreign language," stated Ms. Linda Bredel — German.

"I think it is a great department. It's more comprehensive than some two year colleges I'm aware of. We offer three living languages, and one classical language," expressed Mr. Joe Jackson — Spanish.

"When you know two languages then you have the best of two worlds. It gives you a broader chance of employment and the ability to become acculturized to an area quickly in most cases," commented Mr. Joe Jackson — Spanish.

Teachers in the Foreign Language department are: Ms. Linda Bredel — German; Ms. Cherre Rogers — French; Mr. Mike Tomooka — Spanish; Mr. Joe Jackson — Spanish; Mr. Ken Ramsey — Spanish; Mr. Gus Bock — Latin.

While taking a test Lori Gann smiles happily at the thought of passing. (Gill)

As she looks on over the food Ms. Linda Bredel can't decide what she wants to eat first. (Roberts)

While taking notes, students in French II listen to Ms. Cherre Rogers talk about France. (Roberts)

"Come on over" says Mr. Joe Jackson as he reads off what's on the menu.

The Spanish class follows along in their book as Mr. Ken Ramsey teaches.

While students do work, Mr. Mike Tomooka walks through the class to see if they need help. (Roberts)

PREPARING FOR FUTURE BUSINESS SUCCESS!

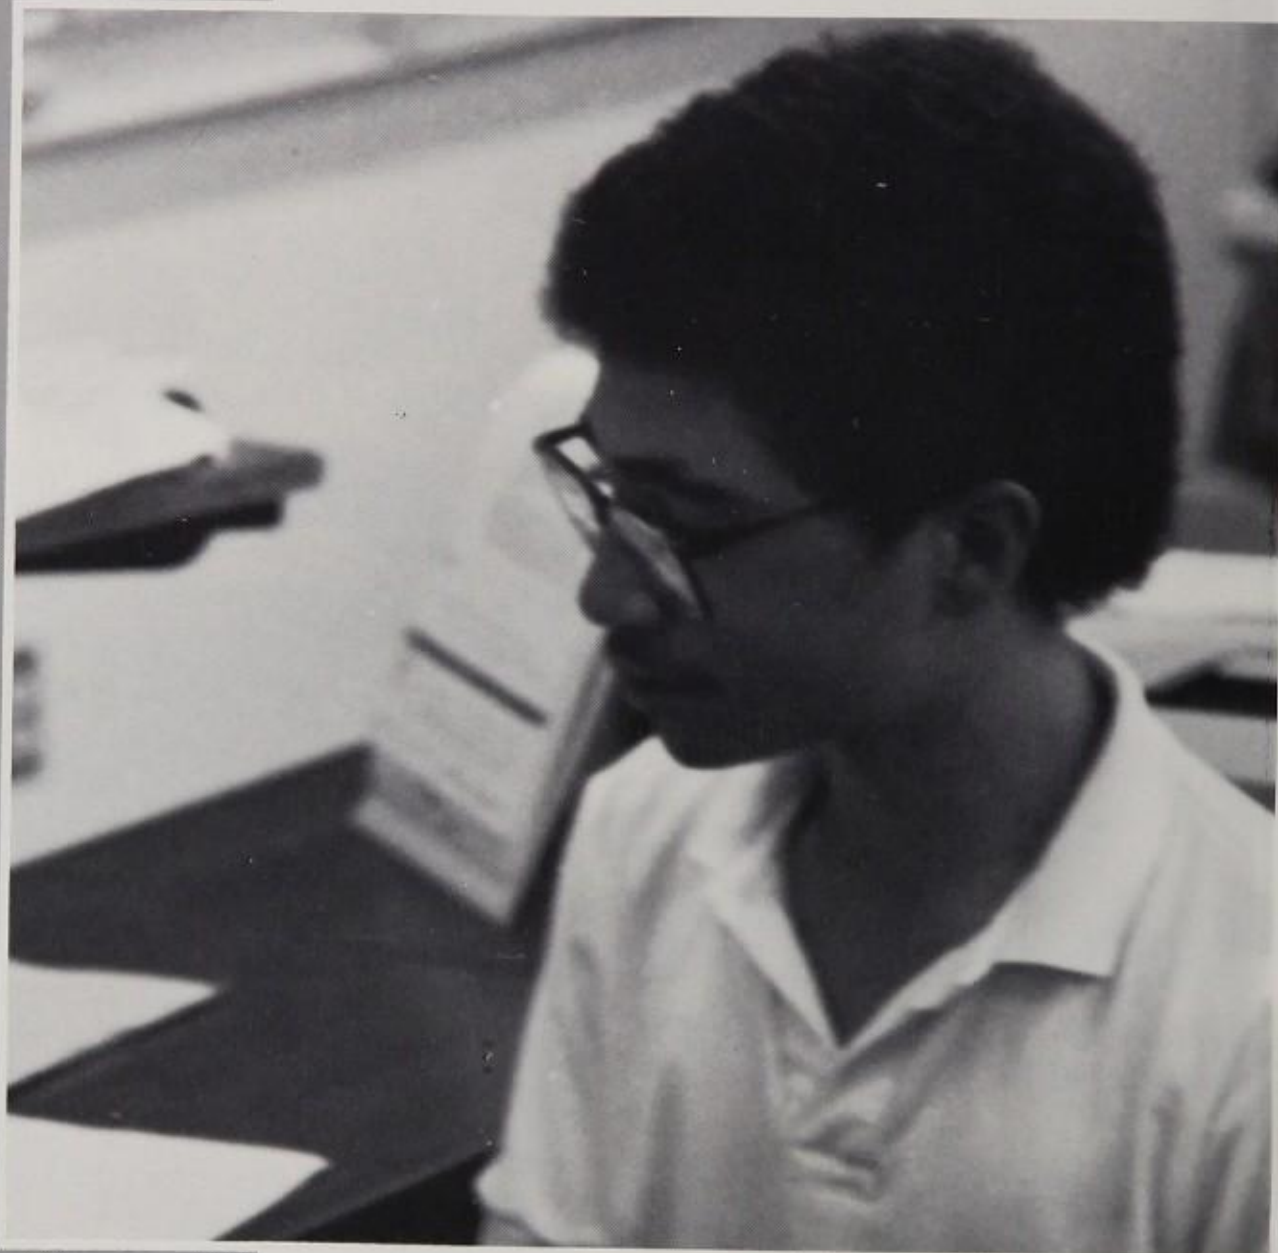

Cooperative, hard working teachers were what the Business Department was made of. Their goal was to help students learn procedures for future business practices.

The Typing Department was in their second year of using the new IBM electronic typewriters. The Computer Department also purchased new computers and new computer software.

The Business Department had many guest speakers and many field trips. The department also attended various competitions, including Cochise College Business Day. DECA and FBLA attended the Regional State and National Competitions.

When asked what her favorite part about being in the Business Department was, chairperson Mrs. Terry Rothery replied, "The people I work with work as a team. We share and help one another." (Fullford)

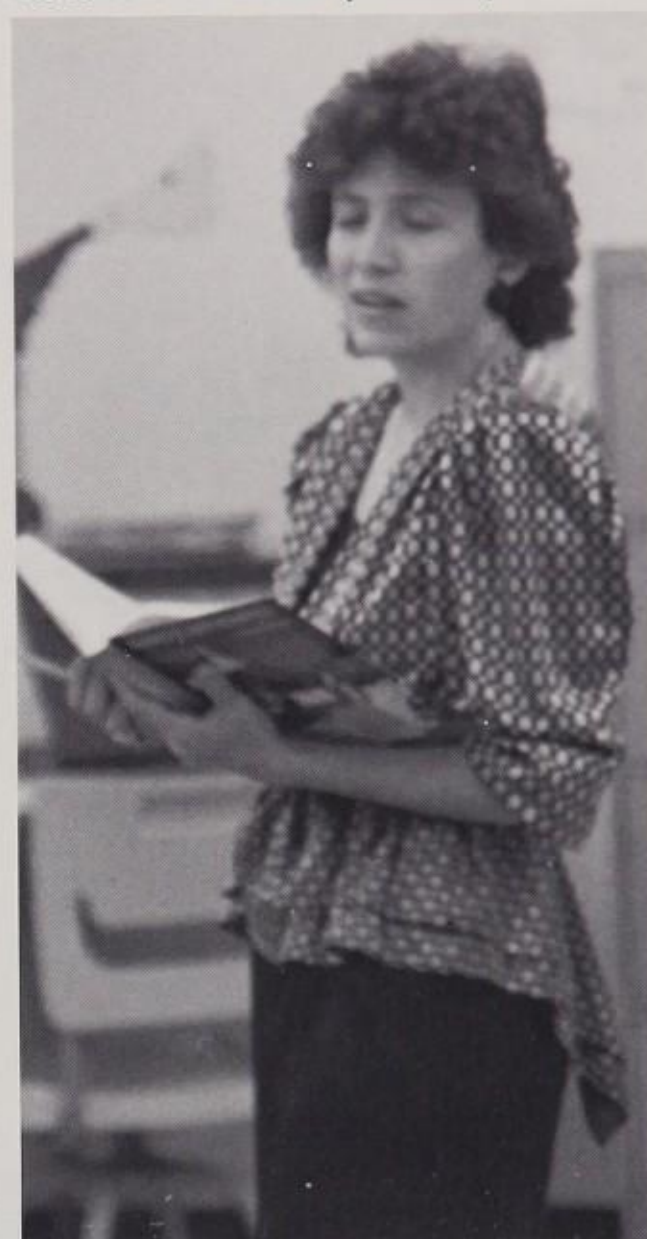

Concentration is an important part of typing. Legscardo Palmer hurries to finish his assignments.

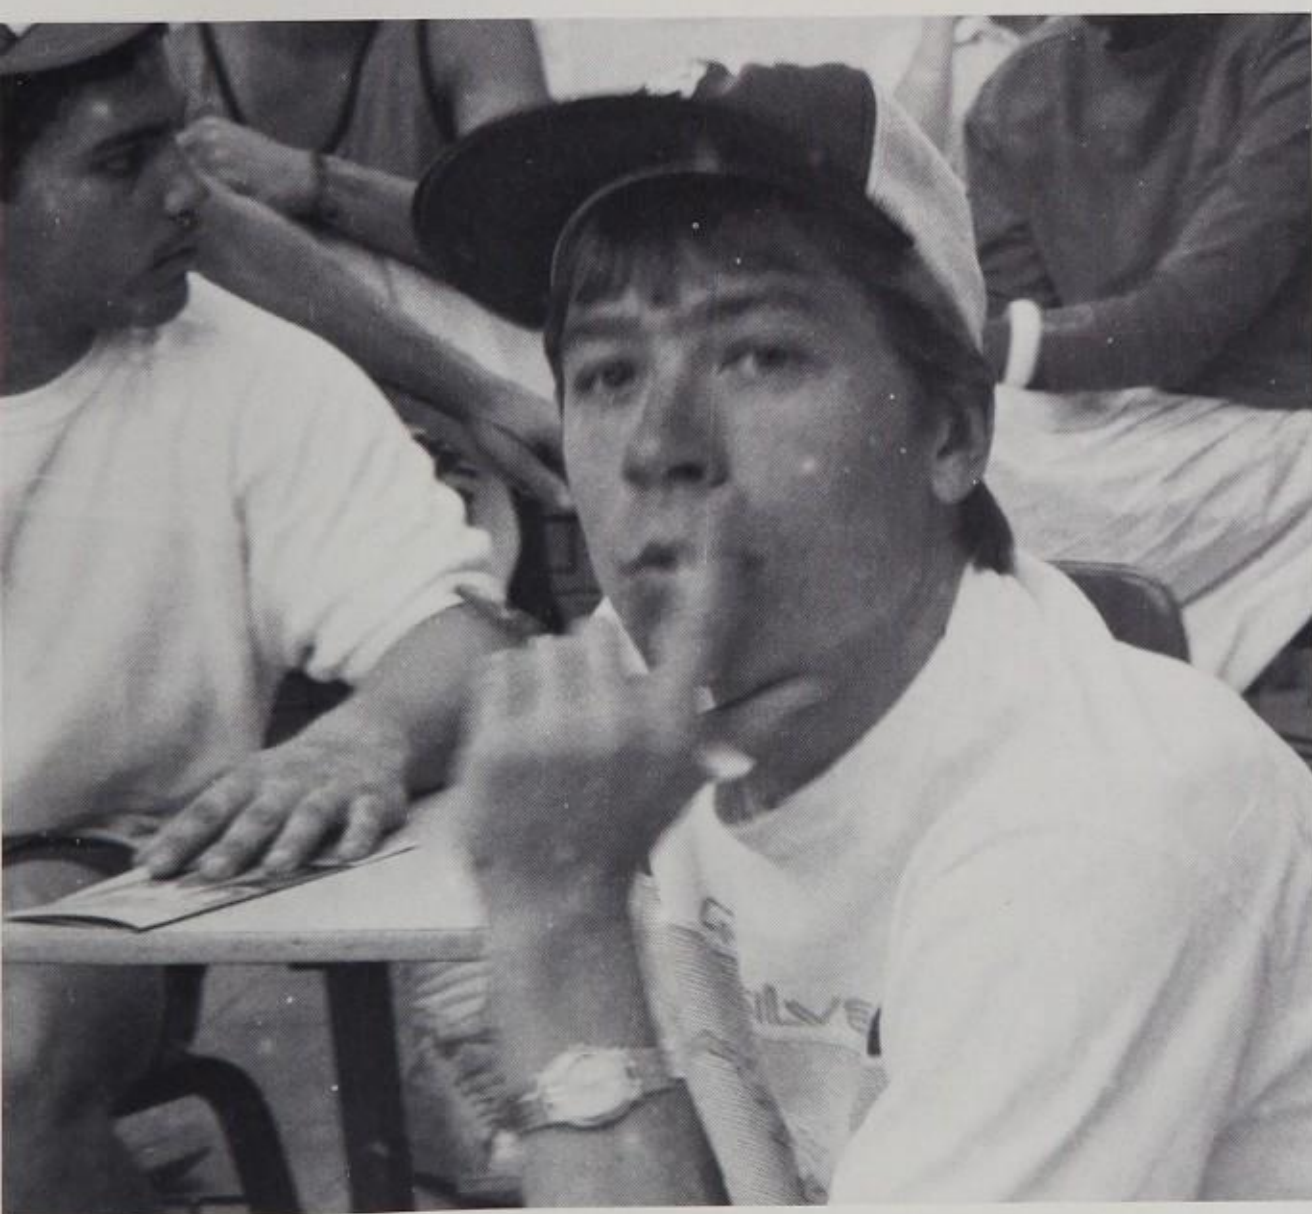

Department members include: Mr. Chuck Greene, Mrs. Marcia Greene, Mrs. Norma Mena, Miss Diane McCuen, Mr. Dennis Poer, Mrs. Terry Rothery, Mrs. Mickie Wralstad, Miss Margaret Young.

Proper preparation is an essential part of being a business student. Maelien Shipman stops at her locker to pick up materials for class. (Paulson)

Book work is not the only thing accounting students do. They also listen to lectures given by Mrs. Marlene Plumb. (Gill)

DECA meetings can be very controversial. Here Brian Jones takes a second to contemplate his decision. (Gill)

IMAGINATION EQUALS CREATIVITY

The energies developed by students in Mrs. Kim Shipek's Fine Arts Department lend appreciation for humanity's creative impulses. The students experience the joy of seeing their ideas become a reality. During an interview, Mrs. Shipek stated, "I can't imagine doing anything else but teaching in the Fine Arts Department."

The Fine Arts faculty enjoys watching the wonderful progress of hard working students throughout the year. The classes consist of: art (Mrs. Shipek and Mrs. Jane Kolber), drama (Mrs. Mamie Warnick), band (Mr. Klien and Mr. Ron Rivera), and choir (Mrs. Rhonda Westman). (Bustamante)

Creativity explodes while Edicka Arce creates a nose out of clay. (Gill)

Perfection is part of Buena's goal. In this picture, the band gives us an example. (Gill)

It is said that feeling is displayed through the arts. Here Stephen Dove shows his creativity with this sculpture. (Gill)

At play practice, Phaedra Nielson and Brook Weinkauff look on while other students perform. (Gill)

To keep in tune while walking can be difficult. The Buena drummers give it their best shot. (Flores)

Much rehearsing is required to give a good performance. Juno Boce and Katie Anderson read over their lines in drama class. (Gill)

LET'S GET PHYSICAL

The Physical Education department offered a wide variety of sports activities. These included volleyball, softball, flag football, soccer, tennis, dance, team handball, weight training, speed-a-way, and aerobics. Students experienced two of these activities per semester.

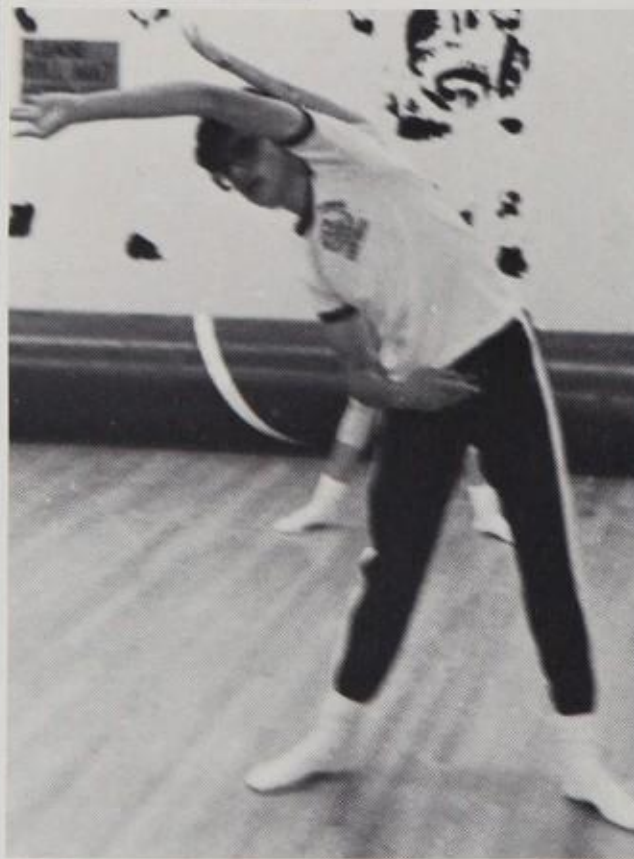

Introduction to P.E. was a required course for freshman. The primary goals of this course were to develop physical fitness, teach students to cooperate with each other, get along in a game situation, and have good sportsmanship.

After a taste of the various sports available in Intro to P.E., the students had the option of taking an upper level course specializing in a sport of their choice. The advanced class offered one activity per semester instead of two. "I think the upper level students enjoy being able to take what they feel they want to take," stated Ms. Sue Fletcher.

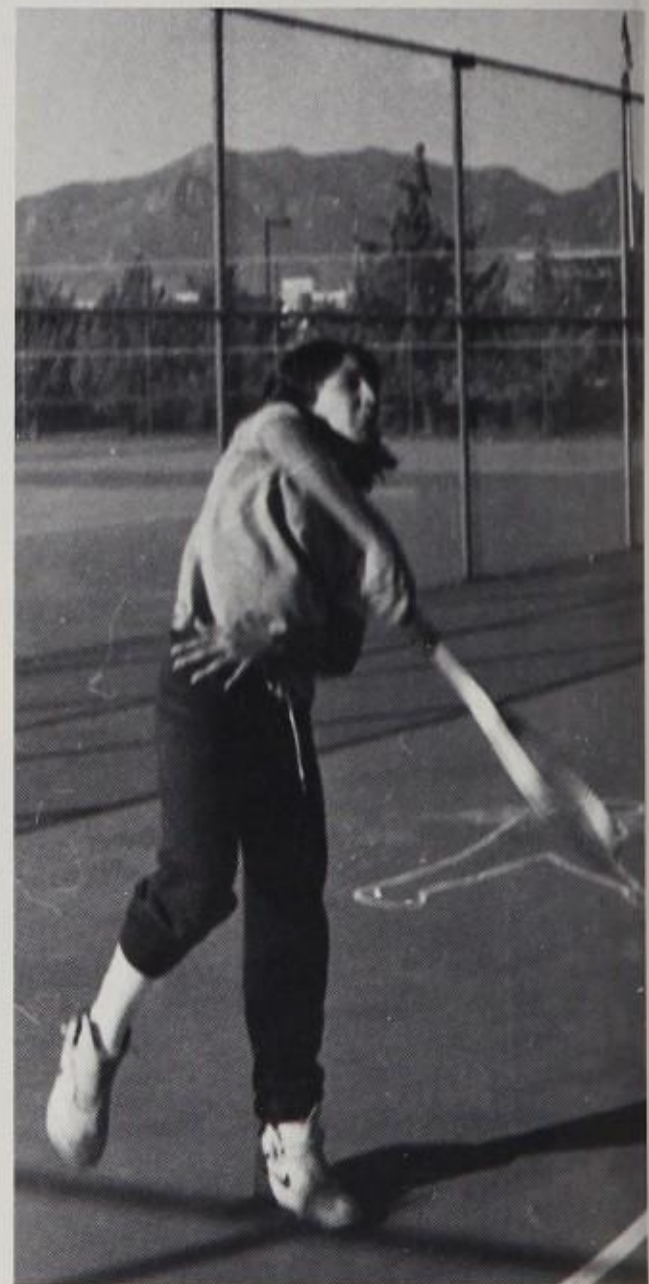

Aerobics, one of the most recent additions in the P.E. department, has been very popular. "Aerobics is tiring but it's fun," remarked Christa Kennedy. (Brown)

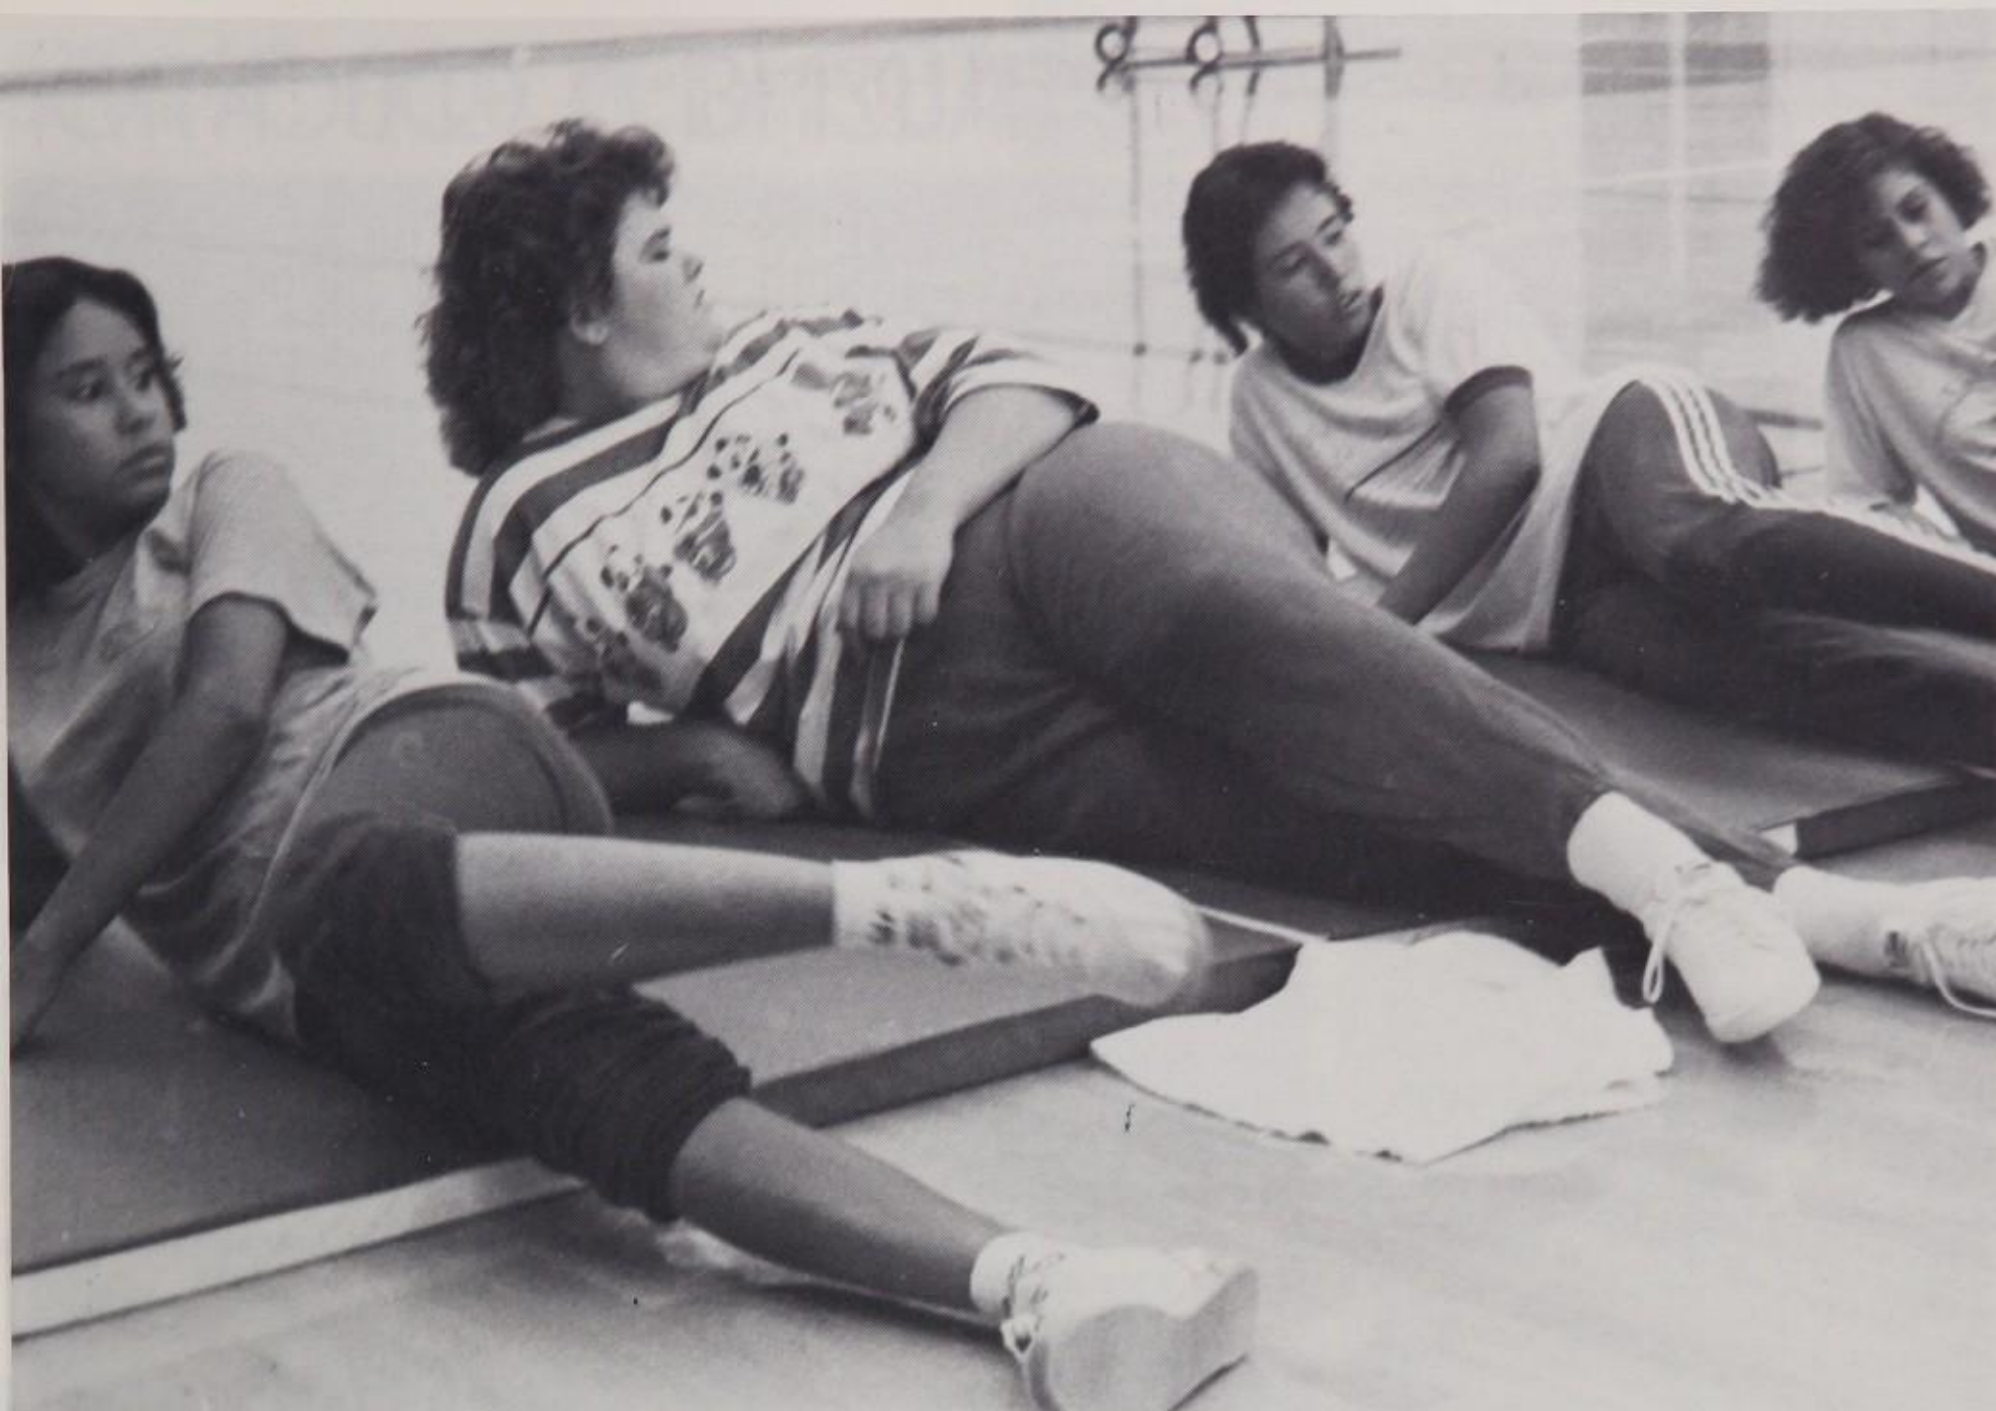

Department members include: Francie Callahan, Sue Fletcher (chairperson), Rick Landis, Kim Martin, Manuel Martinez, Jeanne Sciacca, Danita Warmack, and Truman Williamson. (Paulson)

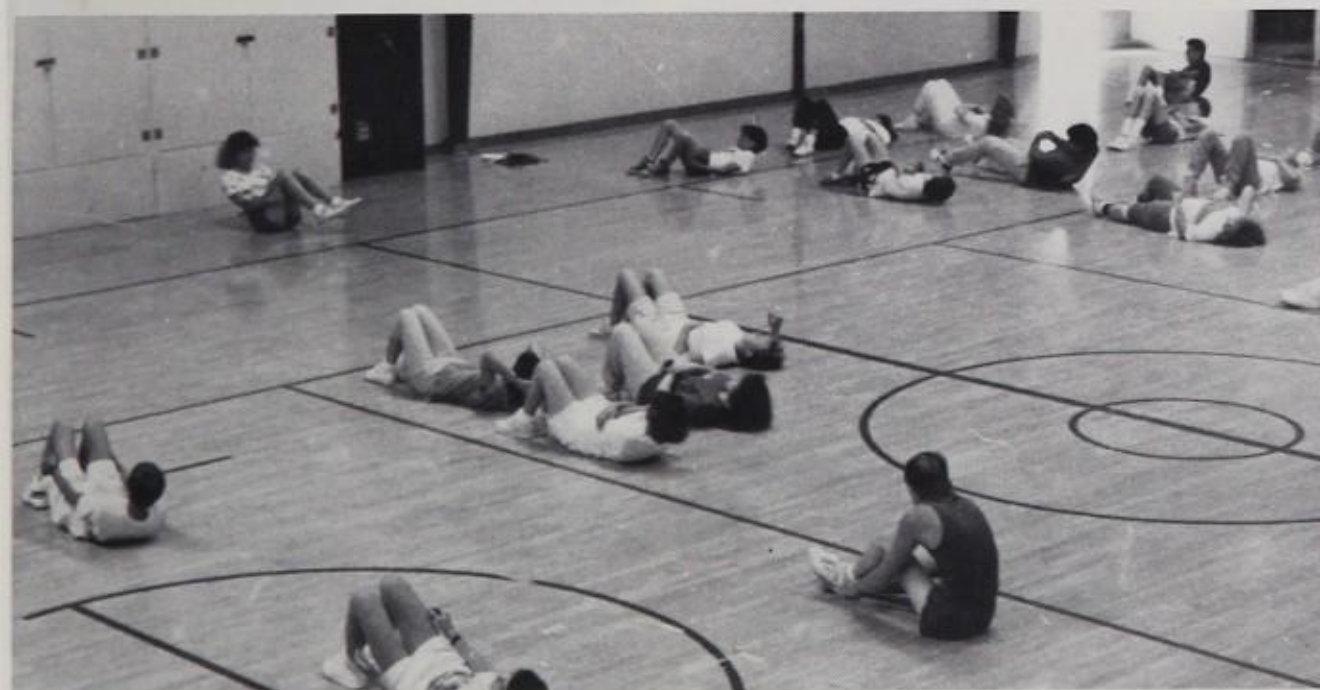

While practicing a new dance routine, Ronnie Rodriguez struts his stuff. (Flemister)

Service is the key in tennis, and Sean Marple finds practice makes perfect. (Flemister)

Students in aerobics need to start out slowly as Mary Lou Lara, Helen Ritchie, Liz Rosario, and Maria Mendoza demonstrate before moving on to the day's more strenuous exercises. (Flemister)

A west campus P.E. class warms up before running a lap around the track. (Flemister)

SPECIALIZING IN EDUCATION

The Resource Department had a program called Students in Mainstream in the regular class situation. The students got credit for their participation as a classroom effort. The Parallel Program taught the basic subjects giving the students the average education just as the other students in Buena. Students also became involved in various extracurricular activities, such as: Jobs during the school day that Resource students receive essential credit for. They worked in public (Community Center) and private industries. EMH (Educable Mentally Handicapped) held jobs during school days for the students to receive credit towards graduation.

The Resource Staff Instructors were: David Austin, David Avalos, Marcia Bocazar, Connie Hegman, Debbie Karrond, Dawn Latting, Mimi Letarte, Anthony Ruffo, and Renee Webb. Aide: Maria Moore. (Fulford)

Research is an essential part of every book report. Harold Johnson finds some facts in a handbook on the AIDS virus. (Fulford)

Careful thought is necessary before one begins to write a paper. William Jones thinks deeply about his paper. (Fulford)

Finding facts is also a hard task as Mrs. Hegamen helps a student discover the answers to all of the questions he asked. (Fulford)

STRIVE FOR PERFECTION!

Formation is an important part of JROTC training, as is demonstrated by Daniel Hughes.

Battalion inspections are a weekly occurrence in JROTC, Danny Hughes, Squad leader begins his inspection. (Fulford)

The JROTC instructors were: LTC. Sandquist, CSM. Montgomery, MSG. Johnson. (Fulford)

Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps classes achieved many goals during the year. The students took classes in leadership training, map reading, drill instruction, marksmanship, first aid and physical training. Once a week, on Wednesdays, the cadets wore their uniforms and were inspected during JROTC instruction.

JROTC participated in open house, school dances, and a number of other activities. They also had a battalion formation once a month.

Students who displayed good leadership, grades, attitude and attendance were promoted at the end of each quarter. The corps raised funds by placing a brand new soda machine in front of the main building at the start of the year. The students used the benefits of their funds to purchase a computer and a television set along with a VHS recorder to view their classes in training.

When asked about the performance of the cadets, LTC. Sandquist replied, "We have outstanding ratings due to our cadets' skills." (Fulford)

TRAINING FOR THE FUTURE

A good knowledge of business application skills is the passport to an excellent career. The Buena High School Cooperative Office Education classes prepared students for the future. A complete application process was required for entrance and only 15 to 25 students were selected.

The criteria for admission proved that all students were not able to be in this class. Attitude, attendance, grades and skills were only a few of the list of requirements for admission. Only those few students who passed the entrance procedure advanced into the class.

Those who did make it into the class were taught new skills which included the operation of office equipment, leadership, human relations and communications.

The Co-op classes helped students get a grasp on business education. The teachers, Mr. Chuck Greene, and Mrs. Terry Rothrey pointed students in the right direction for a productive business career. (West/Hopkins)

Computer work can be tough. Wendy Gates types diligently to complete her work.

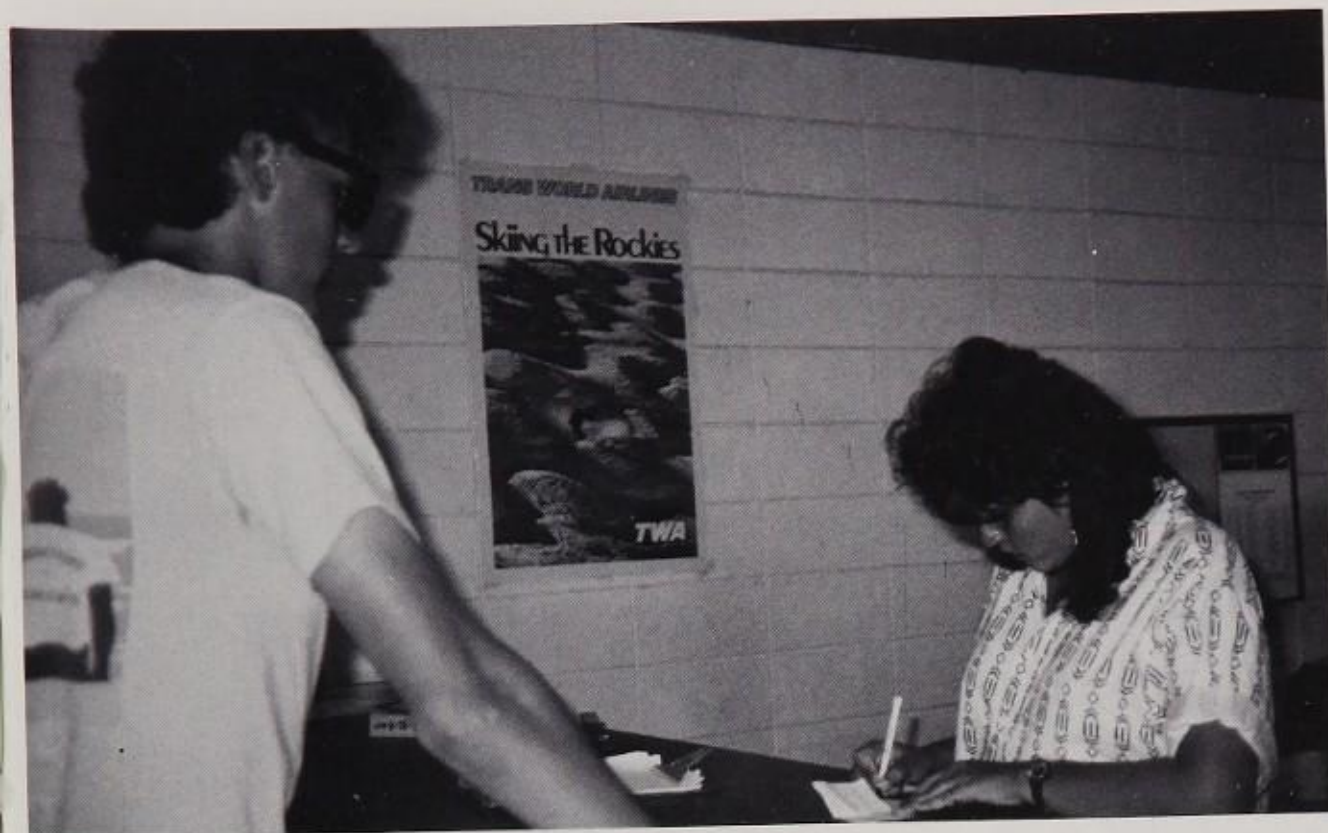

Unbelievable! A copier that works, comments Misty Hockstad. (Hammond)

"You can't possibly be serious!," Mrs. Terry Rothrey says to a student's "I forgot my homework excuse," while Tanya Broxton looks on. (Hammond)

BEST HELPERS AROUND

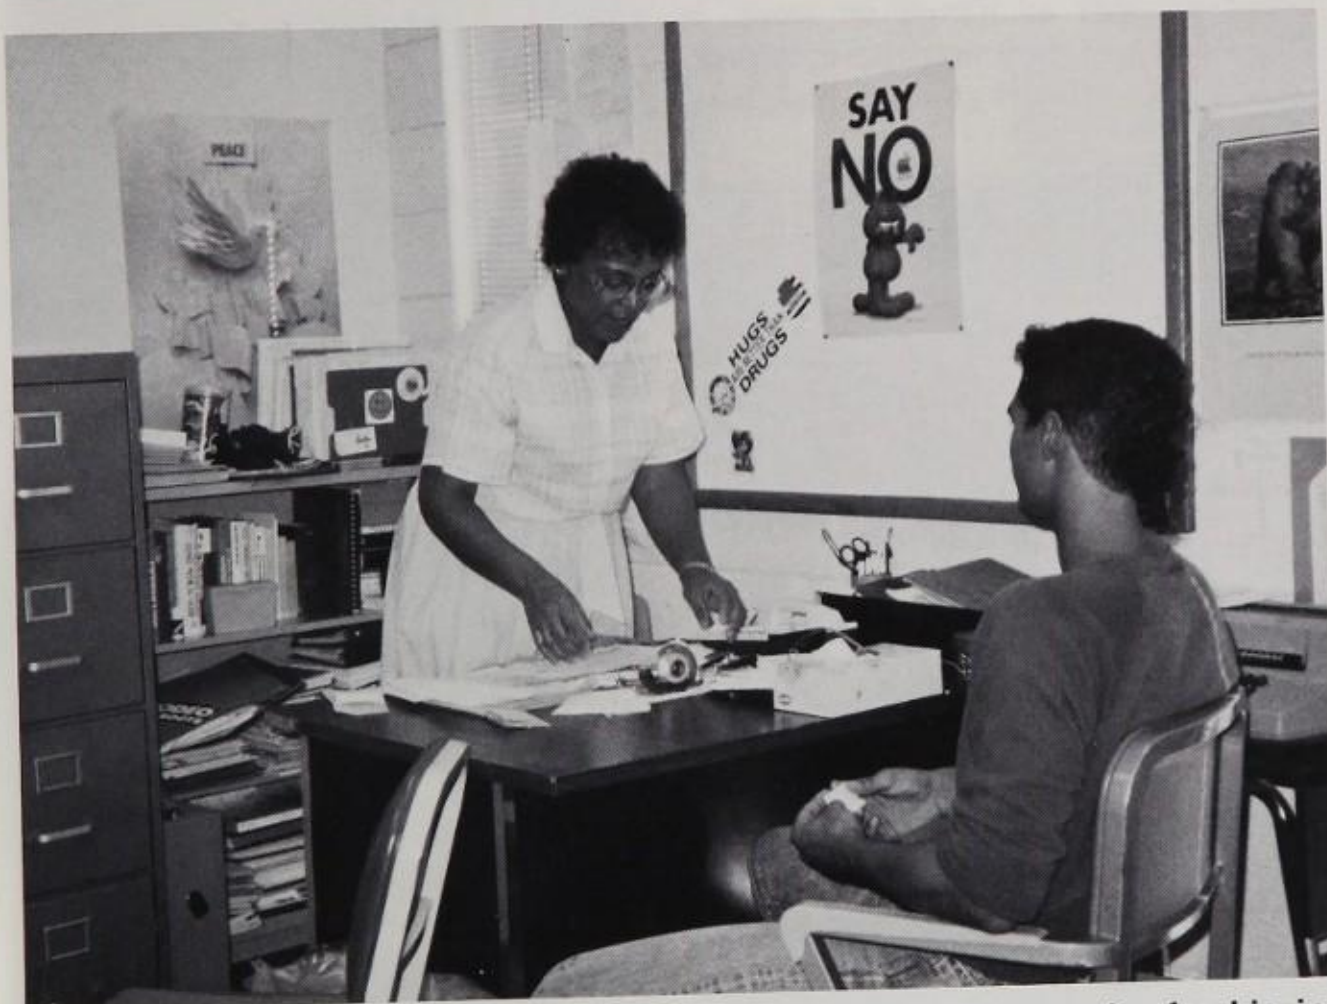

Invincible, is the perfect word to describe student aides. Their tasks included filing papers, running errands and answering phones.

"Being an aide is a rewarding experience because the teachers give you insight to the profession of teaching," said Terry Hopkins, an aide to Mrs. Cathy Miller.

The aides were an excellent help to the teachers. Without the help of the aides, the teachers would not be able to complete many of the tasks that the helpers executed so well. (West/Hopkins)

Admits are very important to this school. This office aide writes out one as part of her daily tasks. (Hammond)

As he listens intently to Mrs. Gwen Calhoun, Darin Elkins waits for his instructions. (Hammond)

To be sure his teacher is kept informed, Andrew Buckley checks her box on his way to class. (Hammond)

NOT JUST ANOTHER CLASS

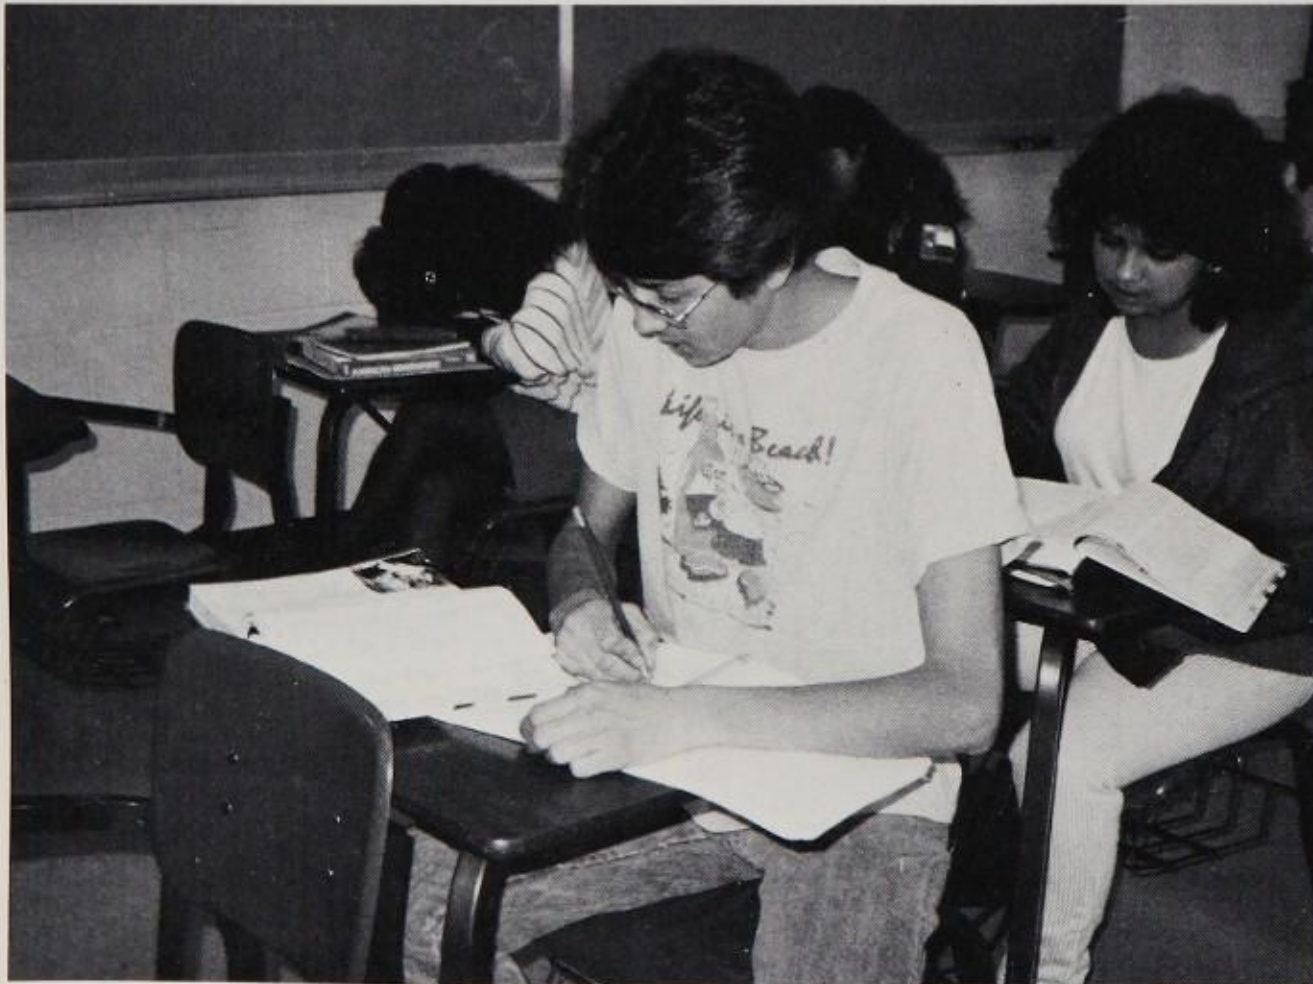

Photography, business law, graphics, auto, home economics — all are a part of the Applied tech department. Applied tech is the discipline that prepares students for the work a day world which they may choose to enter after high school.

The teachers in the department are Mr. Bob Dawson, Mrs. Ruth Martinez, Mr. George Jansen, Mr. Steve Vuckobrotovich, Mr. Darrel Sharp, Mr. Jim Casteel, and Mr. Robert Perry. These skilled personnel teach a wide variety of classes. When asked about the most interesting aspect of shop, Joseph Stallcup responded, "I liked coming into class and listening to Mr. V. tell us about every little detail there is to know about cars." (Flores)

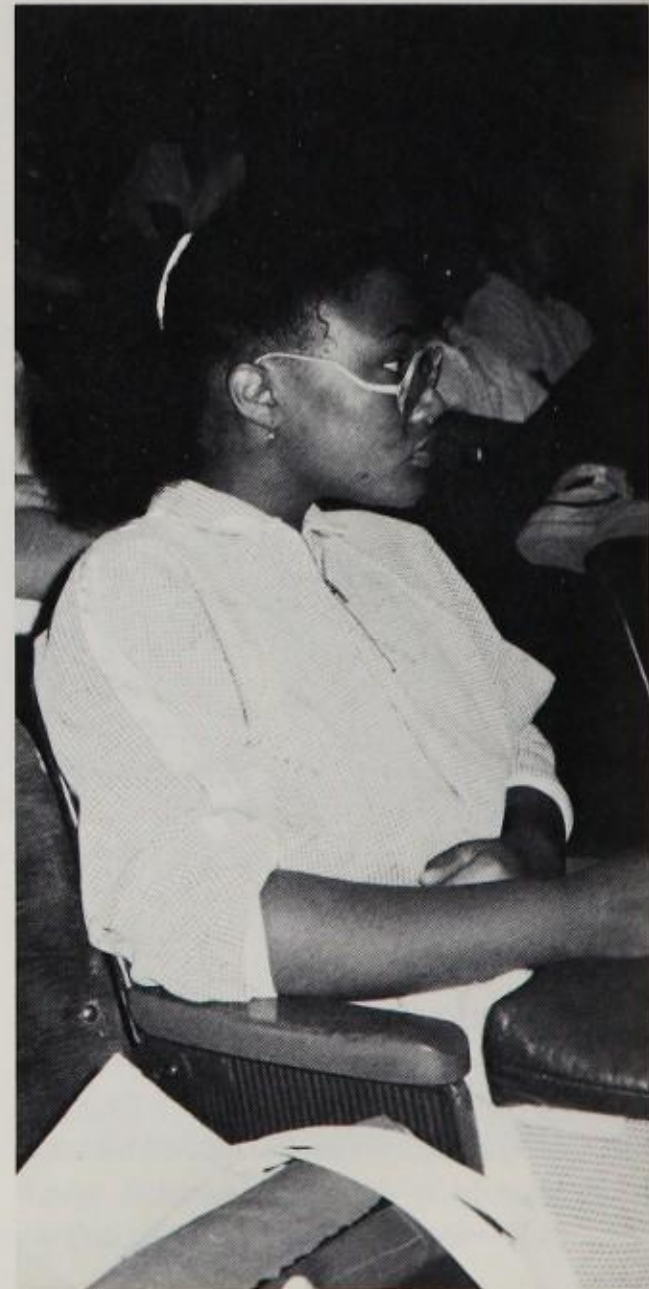

Graphics isn't all hands on work. It takes a lot of planning. Here Sharon Culberson displays her finished artwork.

Class lectures contain a lot of important information. Michelle Johnston listens closely not to miss any. (Flores)

Note taking is a very important part of everyday activities and can be very helpful for tests. Thomas Grandstaff busies himself with his notes.

HANDS ON TRAINING!

Driver's Education isn't all hard work. Many students find time to enjoy the finer things in life like fitness. (Flores)

Transportation is a very important part of life at Buena, but not everyone is able to drive. Many people take the high school's answer to driving school. Driver's Education benefits many of Buena's upperclassmen. Mr. Harris and Mrs. Haas are the instructors of the course, which teaches students all aspects of driving including how to change a flat tire. Driver's Ed also benefits students when they pay their insurance. Students with credit for the class often get lower rates from their insurance companies. When asked what the most interesting part of Driver's Ed. was, Elizabeth Molyneaux said, "I like the teacher, Mrs. Haas, and I loved the idea of finally driving without my father in the car." Driver's Ed. is a very important part of a student's education. Bradley West gave this reason for his participation, "Everyone needs to help keep the roads safe at all times." (Flores)

Proper distance is a very important part of driving skills. Mr. Don Harris demonstrates exactly how far away a car should be when you are driving. (Flores)

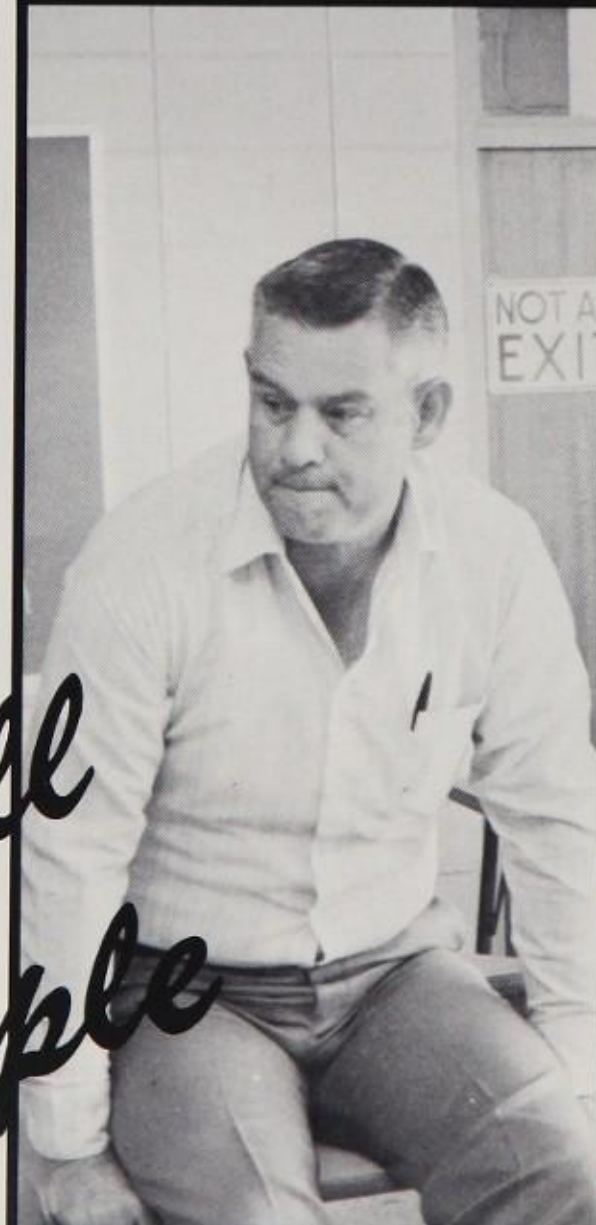

Safety is very important when driving. Linda Chumley, and Thomas White buckle their seatbelts. They were both learning the basic concepts of parallel parking. (Flores)

SPIRIT ON THE NATIONAL LEVEL

As the morning sun rose in the east, the cheers had daily practice in the gym from 6:30 to 7:30 a.m. This practice was necessary in order to perfect their skills in supporting athletics and generating school spirit.

The Cheers received many awards at the National Cheerleading Association camp they attended at Arizona State University.

The Varsity squad won two first place ribbons, two second place ribbons, the spirit award, spirit stick, and the Award of Excellence for the overall best squad. Cindy Allen won "All American Cheerleader" which entitled her to perform at the Aloha Bowl in Hawaii.

The Award of Excellence boosted the Varsity squad to the National Cheerleading Competition in Dallas, Texas. This was a first for Buena. Preparation and fund raising for the Nationals proved to be the most difficult part of the year, but with the enthusiasm of the members these difficult tasks were accomplished.

Mrs. Gloria Fauver, the cheers sponsor, stated, "This is the most dedicated and positive squad I've had the pleasure of working with. Preparing for Nationals and earning the funding to go will require hard work and a professional attitude."

The Junior Varsity squad won three first place ribbons and one second place ribbon. They also received a spirit stick. (Calindas)

The squad members are: Captain Jenny Vaughn, co-Captain Karen Bias, Marla Bartholomew, Sandy Berry, Heather Callaway, Char White, and Roberta Whitney. (Berry)

As some members of the Junior Varsity wait for their performance, Sandy Berry, Karen Bias, Roberta Whitney, and Jenny Vaughn watch the other parts of the pep rally. (Noga)

As they enjoy the presence of the mascot, Frederic Calindas and Lori Donahue give Heather McCray a rest as she gets carried. (Noga)

While Mrs. Gloria Fauver talks with Cindy Allen and Maelien Shipman, she finds out how the cheers are progressing. (Brown)

Formation is an important factor in cheerleading as Annette Crawford demonstrates. (Noga)

The squad members are: Captain Cindy Allen, co-Captain Maelien Shipman, Michelle Bartholomew, Tiffany Brown, Frederic Calindas, Annette Crawford, Lori Donahue, Peter Flores, Jill Jenia, Vicky Lindogen, Amy Mills, Diane Richter, Managers Cammie Bush and Ammy Mabus, and mascot Heather McCray. (Gill)

In order to maintain her position of co-Captain, Karen Bias must practice whenever and wherever to prove that "Practice makes perfect". (Berry)

Arm levels is a difficult part in performing a serious routine, as the varsity squad shows their well-trained coordination. (Noga)

The girls in the blue and white uniforms that danced at the football and basketball games were none other than the members of the Buena Pom Pon Squad. The Pom squad danced at all of the football games, and at all of the home basketball games. There were 13 members on the squad — 12 regular and one alternate. "It was interesting to have new girls on the squad because there are a lot of people bringing in new ideas," commented Captain Jodi Thalheimer.

Each day the Poms started practice at 6:45 A.M. and marched with the Buena Band. They then spent 1st hour with sponsor and coach Mrs. Gloria Fauver, who has been with the squad three years.

In order to become a Pom, the girls had to have teacher recommendation, good grades, and the ability to dance and march. Good grades were a must because if a girl had poor grades, she would be suspended for a certain number of games. The Poms held fundraisers to help pay for their uniforms and pom-poms. "As soon as you make the squad, the fundraising begins," said Mrs. Fauver.

Tryouts were held in March and lasted one day. The girls then practiced during the summer and attended an NCA camp at ASU, where they had competition and learned new routines. (Ugalde)

To perform a routine in front of people, a great deal of skill and concentration is required. Here the Buena Poms perform at their best. (Dray)

Squad members include: Jenni Beardsworth, Karina Brenes, Renee Culberson, Michelle Handley, Kendra Hiatt, Judy Maroney, Hannah Meeker, Co-Captain Jolynn Myers, Lisa Saavedra, Laura Stahl, Greta Swasey, and Captain Jodi Thalheimer. (Dray)

BIG SQUAD! BIG SUCCESS!

Good manual dexterity is a must if you want to be a Flag. Melissa Boulee and Karen Dray demonstrate this ability at the pep rally. (Noga)

Squad members include: Cindy Basse, Co-Captain Melissa Boulee, Jaci Chapman, Karen Dray, Jennifer Hall, Angie Hessler, Allison Holtry, Tina Johnson, Pat Johnson, Christina Kjolsrud, Kathy Kneller, Kristin Lear, Jennifer Mabijs, Tammy McMains, Lisa Olson, Julianne Paxman, Field Captain Kim Petit, Jennifer Quintliani, Wendy Rainey, Jeanne Ray, Field Captain Heather Raymond, Amy Rucker, Meredith Sams, Teri Tomlin, Captain Diane Trotter, Anna Valdez, and Joanna White. (Dray)

For two hours every morning the Buena High School Flag Squad practiced their routines. The purpose of the Flags was to enhance the musical interpretation of the Buena Band. Although they were a part of the band, the Flags could operate as a separate unit. The squad was a large one, consisting of 28 members, including four alternates. "The squad did an excellent job performing, considering the number of girls involved," said sponsor and coach Mrs. Westman.

The Flags performed with the band during football games and at the U of A Band Day. This year three girls had the opportunity to attend the Blue Bonnet Bowl, and Expo '88 in Australia. The girls were; Char Frey, Angie Hessler, and Amy Rucker.

Tryouts for the Flags were held in March. Requirements were to meet AIA requirements, have good grades, and attend camp during the summer. The Flags had fundraisers to help pay for uniforms and equipment. Captain Diane Trotter commented, "In all, it was a really great squad and I feel that they did a good job because they worked well and respected each other." (Ugalde)

IN PERFECT STEP

Boosting school spirit and bringing a dazzling performance to the football games was the job of the Marching Band. They mesmerized the crowds with their colorful uniforms and harmonious sounds. Working in unison with the Poms, Cheers, and Flags, the Marching Band never missed a beat.

The band has a history of outstanding performances. They became nationally recognized when they represented Arizona in Washington D.C. and Philadelphia during July. They also represented Buena at both ASU's and U of A's Band Day Competitions.

When asked what she liked best about being a member of the Marching Band, Sonja Mueller said, "It's the feeling being able to blend together as one unit." (Scholtz)

Practice makes a world of difference in the outcome of a musical selection, as shown by the members of the Buena Marching Colts and Flags. (Hammond)

Between performances Sonja Hays, Tamie Alberts, and Tonya Robins take time out for a little rest and relaxation, while awaiting their next performance.

Showing us the correct way to play the tuba is James Miller. Here he blows his little heart out. (Stoddard)

The members of the Marching Band watch and wait in anticipation for the beginning of their next musical selection.

In a fury of clashing cymbals, the members of the Marching Band's percussion section produce the sounds to make their selection complete. (Gill)

The pride and symbol of the Buena Marching Band is being carried by Alex Morrison, as he takes his place on the field. (Tilford)

As the members of the Marching Band march onto the football field and take their places, the soothing sounds begin to fill the air. (Stoddard)

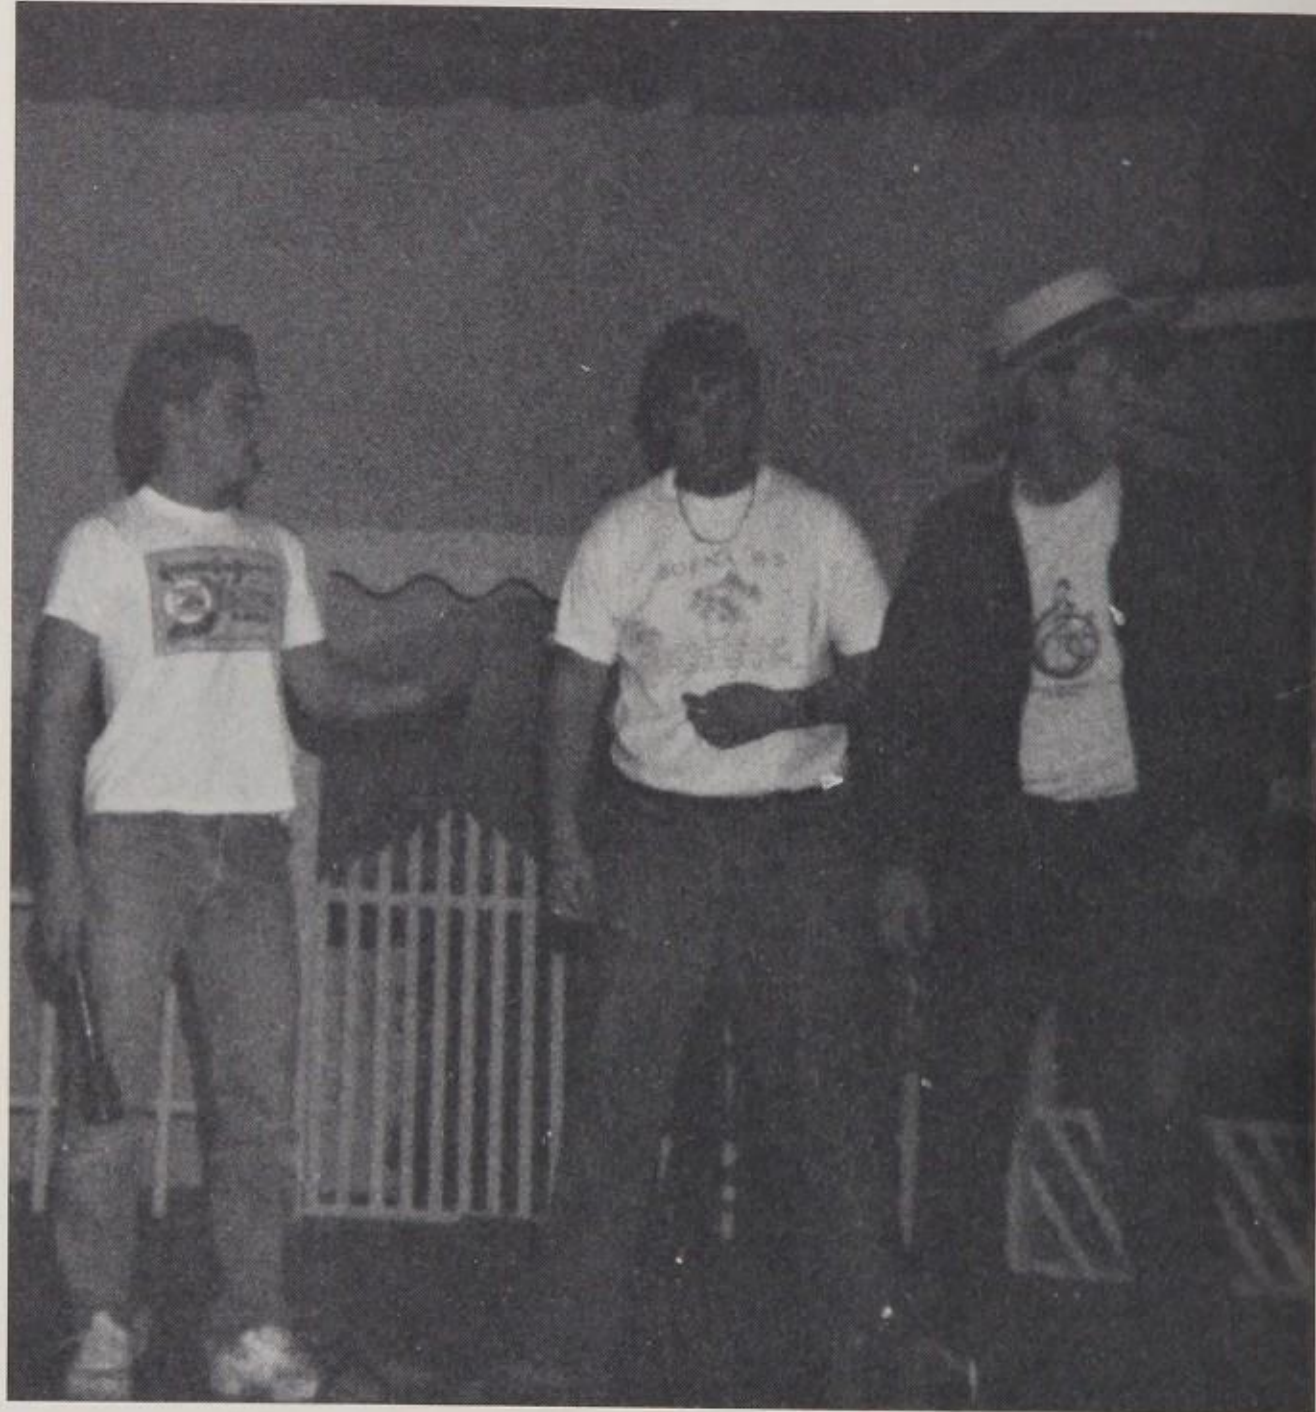

The show "Oklahoma" was a big hit last year. The many, hard, and long practices really paid off. The practices usually lasted from 6:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m.

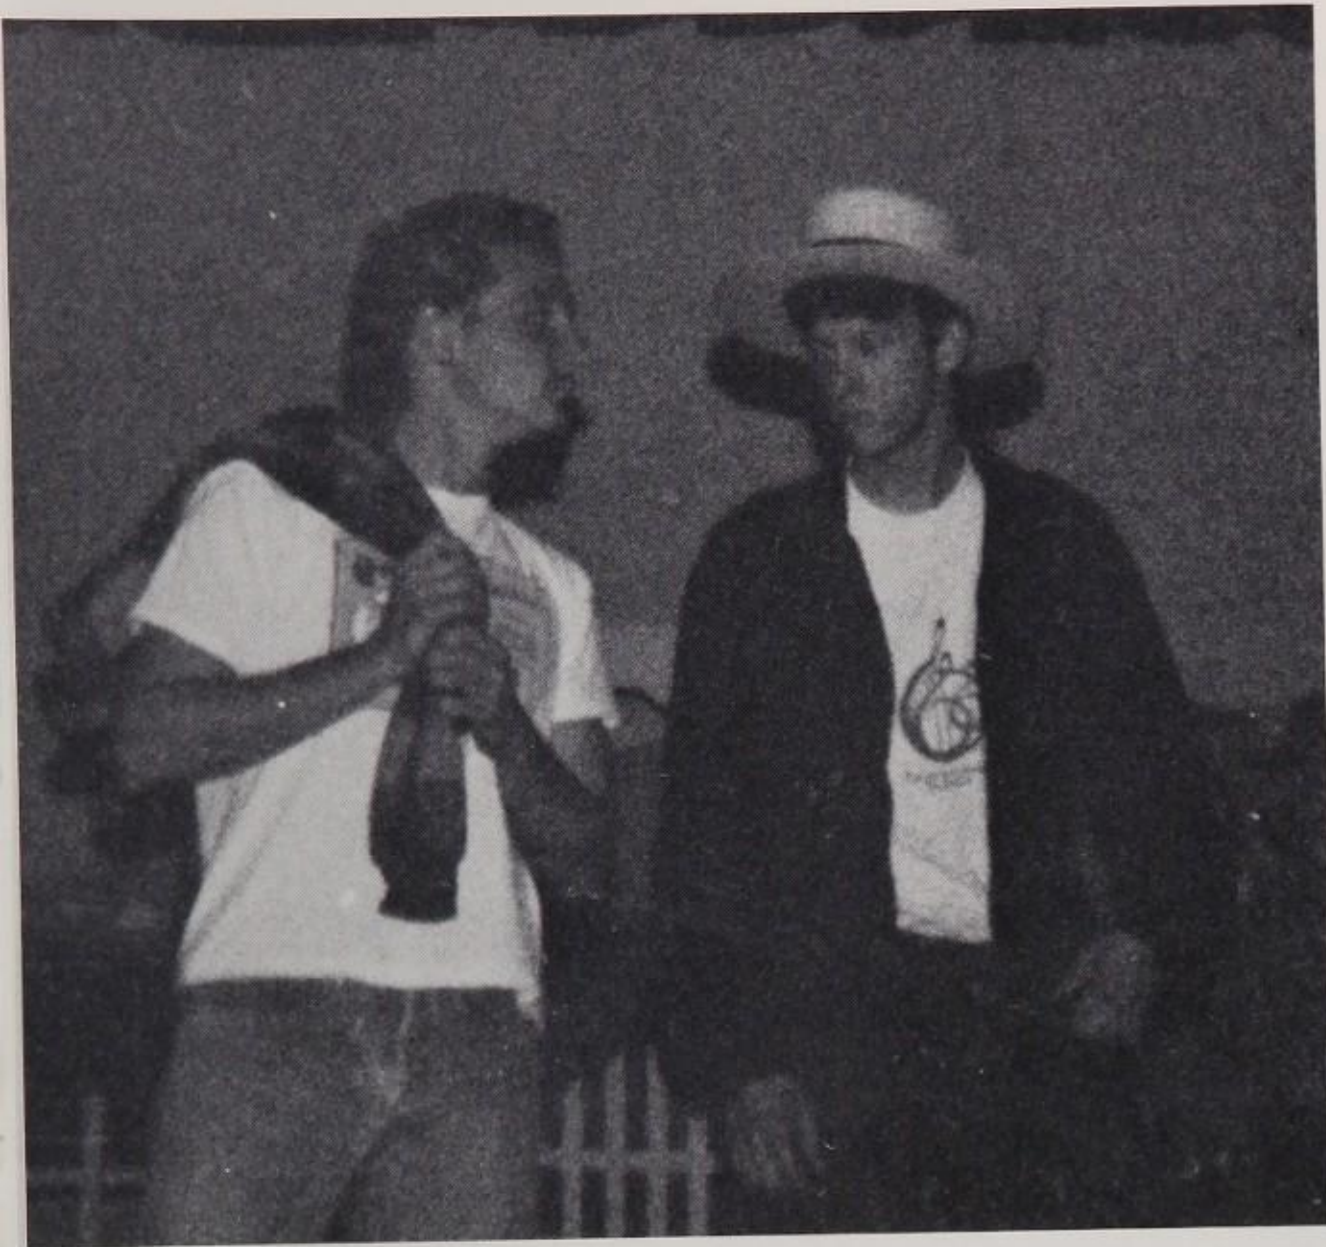

The show was performed on February 10, 11, and 12. On closing night they had a large crowd.

The dress rehearsal was February 8, 1988 at 6:00 p.m. It was closed to the public in order that the young performers could practice the actual play without an audience or any interruptions.

The directors were Mrs. Mamie Warnick, who worked with the acting; Mrs. Rhonda Westman, who worked with the singing; and Mrs. Danita Warmack, who worked with the dancing. They all worked hard to have the successful show that they did. (Myers)

As Eric Brown, David Dunbar, and Bradley West rehearse for the performance, they await further instructions. (Brown)

Practice makes perfect as Eric Brown and David Dunbar work hard at rehearsal.

What an actress! Kameron Cusick hams it up as she practices her part in the play.

THE RHYTHM IS GONNA GETCHAI!

Hard hours of practice and sore muscles from stretching, gave the Buena Dance Company outstanding performances during pep rallies, basketball games, and other activities through the year.

To become a member of the dance company, students had to try out in April. The main purpose of the dance company was to provide entertainment for the school functions.

The members had an opportunity to perform before audiences with hope of enhancing the public's appreciation of one of the performing arts. The company members in turn received satisfaction from their work with the many dance routines.

High spirits, participation and encouragement in the class were the keys to better dancing according to most of the company's members.

The dance company officers were: Mary Salaiz, Pres., Christine Presnell, Vice Pres., Lisa Saavedra, Sec., Cheryl Charles, Treas., Linda Skaggs, Costume Mistress. (Bustamante)

Performing one of their dances, Elizia Gardin, Katrina Tate, Mista License, Dora Flores incorporate the splits into the ending. (Holmes)

Warm up is an important part of the dance company as Mrs. Danita Warmack demonstrates the proper form to the class.

Dance Company members: Micheal Anderson, Cheryl Charles, Dora Flores, Eliza Gardin, Leisa Gustafason, Sandy Hall, Dana Hunt, Mista License, Angie Lopez, Stacy Matsura, Susie O'Brien, Christine Presnell, Lisa Saavedra, Mary Salaiz, Linda Skaggs, Sam Sommerfeld, Katrina Tate. (Holmes)

Much practice keeps the Dance Company on the right beat. (Holmes)

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT!

Physical fitness is also important to singers. Here Graig Sipple and Kameron Cusick demonstrate the proper form of warming up. (Noga)

While tuning up, choir members get organized and ready to begin. (Noga)

Is she tuning her voice or yelling at the students? Only Concert Ensemble knows for sure. (Noga)

Concert Ensemble: Chareale Budde, Kameron Cusick, David Dunbar, Priscilla Garcia, Dwayne Hodges, Jeanette Marcroft, Lisa Olcott, Lisa Olson, Reynaldo Romo, Robert Scott, Graig Sipple, Chris Spaulding, Laura Stahl, Todd Totty, Erika Wilkins. Concert Choir: Nicole Bitcon, Micheal Boughan, Sonia Boze, Christine Brock, April Burge, Leisa Burger, Christine

Hours of rehearsal made the choir successful. There are three choral classes: Concert Choir, Mixed Chorus and Concert Ensemble.

The Concert Ensemble was a group of experienced singers and dancers. They performed in concerts, festivals, and clinic shows. They provided a "rent a choir" for special occasions.

Tryouts to become a member were held at the end of the preceding year. There were 15 people selected to be members. The Concert Ensemble officers were: Robert Scott, Pres., Chris Spaulding, Vice Pres., Lisa Olson, Sec., Kameron Cusick, Treas.

Concert Choir consisted of 33 members. The group performed at many community events and held concerts through the year. The Concert Choir officers were: Leisa Burger, Pres., Fred Yakel, Vice Pres., April Burge, Sec., Nicole Bitcon, Treas., Rhonda Smith, Treas.

Mixed Chorus consisted of 20 members who also performed at many concerts through the year to provide public entertainment. (Bustamante)

Cadenhead, Jennifer Chinn, Margy Dalton, Linda Ferrenburg, Erin Foster, Terri Gascon, Toni Haga, Julie Herb, Tricia Herne, Michelle Hoff, Joslyn Howard, Kelley Hyder, Carleesa Knott, Christopher Lind, Jennifer McReynolds, Eric Nash, Lisa Scriven, Rhonda Smith, Teresa Stoner, Raychal Utthey, Judith Vardoncoeur, Kelley Williams, Dana Witbeck, Fred Yakel, Kelley Yonkey, Cari Zappia. PERFORMING AT THEIR BEST

The Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps were made up of special activity units. These units were male and female drill teams, honor guard, male and female combination color guard, rifle team, and orienteers.

Important dates for JROTC were the Christmas parade and a drill team competition in Glendale, which was hosted by Apollo High School. The commanders of the special activity units went down to Mexico to observe that nations first annual competitive events.

If a student who has been in JROTC chooses to go into the Army as an enlisted person the student could go into the Army with advanced ranking depending on the number of years they had been in the program. If they had been JROTC for three or more years, they can go in as a PFC, states MSG George L. Johnson, advisor of the JROTC. If the cadets choose to go to college, they can go into a senior program. (Persinger)

Rifle Team members are: Patrick Burns, Wayne Aubian, Michael Strange, David Dickson, Justin Hickey, Ramon Medrano, Mark Schwitzing. Commanders: Leonardo Escalante, Brad Schierer. (Dray)

Orienteering members are: Patrick Burns, Wayne Aubian, Kevin Crybl-skey, Chad Briggs, Brad Schierer, Robert Scott, Donald Radke, Glenn Willis, Colby Boswer, David Dickson, Mark Castro. Commanders: Scott Ritchey, John Phillips. (Dray)

FUTURE'S SO BRIGHT . . .

Four long years of hard work finally paid off for the class of 1988. On May 25, the class whose motto was "Our future is so bright we have to wear shades!!!" graduated from Buena High School. When asked what was best about being a part of the senior class, Class President Greta Swasey answered "Our class is like one big family, we all get along really well, and I am truly proud to be a part of the best class at Buena!!!" This year's annual senior trip was planned, the senior class decided to go to California instead of Mexico, where the annual trip is usually held.

As all you graduates of Buena's 1988 class head out into your respective areas of life, whether it be college, or maybe vocational school, or perhaps work, or any other things you have decided to do, we wish you the BEST OF LUCK!!!

"SENIORS"

THREE DOWN, ONE TO GO!

Soon to become seniors, the class of 89 showed high spirits, and great enthusiasm before entering their final year of high school.

The junior class sponsored the prom. In order to raise money for this event, they took care of the soda machines. The theme for Prom was "Nights in White Satin".

The representatives were: Jackie Chapman, Luan Coffey, Allison Holtry, Patty Irons, Rick Klucaritz, Greg Oishi, Keith Rabb, Chandra Shultz, and Heather Ward. Their sponsors were Mrs. Genet and Mrs. Rabb. (Brown, Calindas, Myers, Shultz, and West)

FRESHMAN NO MORE!!

Some people are always freshman while others never were.

The Sophomores were sponsored by Mr. Street and Mrs. Street, new teachers at Buena High. The Sophomore representatives were: Tommy Richter, Ty Lainhart, Sukie Lolly, Eliza Gardin, Colleen Ward, Kim Olinger, Angel Bowser.

These students kept the entire Sophomore class informed of all events, such as, Homecoming, Prom, Morp, and others.

When asked what he liked about being a Sophomore, James Fulford responded, "I liked not being a Freshman anymore!" (Bustamante, Brown, Flores, Hasellgrove, Persinger.)

LITTLE FISH IN A BIG POND!!!

For the class of 91, it was time to grow up, time to experience new ideas, friends, and classes. This was a very spirited group of students as they entered their first year of high school. The freshmen had a great year. They enjoyed MORP, pep rallies, and homecoming.

Homecoming was special because they won the annual float contest. When asked what he liked best about the freshmen class, senior Tim Taylor answered, "Dear Freshmen, WE HAVE YOUR BIRD-IE!!!" (Hammond, Flores, Gignac)

Returning With Strength

The Buena Varsity Football team had a spectacular year. They started the season with a 4- record which had them tied for first place. During the victory over rival Sunnyside, Mike Leavitt kicked a field goal in the final three seconds to win the game 10-7.

The team was experienced, and they had strength in numbers. There were 53 members of which 31 were returning letterman. Steve Boggie, Paulino Fontez, and Timothy Taylor were the captains who worked with the officials and represented the team.

There were a few individual records set which made it an even more outstanding year. Quarterback Steve Boggie set a record in passing yards for a single game — 191 yards in the air against Saharo. He also set a new total single season record for Buena of 1237 yards. Boggie led the Southern division in passing.

The longest kick off return was 99 yards set by Dexter Johnson. This return tied the state record.

Linebacker Timothy Taylor broke the record for total defensive points which was previously held by Odel Stewart.

Kicker Michael Leavitt tied the school record for field goals in a season. Head Coach Truman Williamson stated, "Leavitt's only a junior so he should be able to break the career record this upcoming year." Defensive back Bryan Kerby tied the mark for total interceptions in a season with six in the AAA division. (Calindas)

Success Leads The Way!

The Junior Varsity Football team showed a lot of progress by winning 6 out of 8 games.

The team had a strong defense which helped them in tough games against their opponents.

The main strength of the team was talented, nice people. They showed good sportsmanship, and the team worked well together. The players helped each other on the field.

This was definitely a good football season. The team, along with their supporters, can look back on this year and remember it with pride. The combination of hard work and excellent attitude helped this group of young men achieve their goal. (Bustamante)

It was indeed a good year for the freshman football team as they won 7 of 8 games.

They showed a lot of enthusiasm for the sport, and learned the importance of teamwork.

The overall experience prepared them for future slots on the J.V. and Varsity teams of the future.

The players performed with an outstanding attitude. Hustle and grit became familiar words for the team. They were a hard working group that never gave up. (Bustamante)

Down, set, signal! Brad Stevens stands ready to take the hike from his center. (Noga)

The Race Is On

The Boys Cross Country team showed a lot of potential during the season. Richard Haines who has been the coach since 1974 was pleased that the Colts had high finishes in both the Invitational and Division meets. The team placed second at the Pima College Classic, and again at the Benson Invitational. They placed third in the Divisional Championships.

John Beatty, the top runner for the Colts, received a medal for coming in third in Divisionals. He was also one of the star runners in the All-Southern Arizona meet. Another medalist was Lee Brinker who came in ninth in Divisionals. He was number two on the team for the overall season. Buena High has much to be proud of in their cross country team. (Brown)

Varsity team members include: John Beatty, Lee Brinker, Bruno Clark — team captain, Jason Garcia, James Gorday, Justin Johnson — manager, Brian Hewitt, Derek Leonard, Christopher Luhiau, Thoai Nguyen, and Jose Rodriguez. Team members include: Kristine Butt, Marla Cummings, Rebecca Graham and Mary Graminski — managers, Wendy Holman — team captain, Alicia Hoselton, April Kelly, Melesa Murphy, and Charlenne Starr. (Noga)

The Buena Cross Country Fillies' optimism and determination really paid off. They finished the season with an outstanding record. The girls won first place at the Benson Invitational, and Pima Classic. Despite the lack of big meet experience, the Fillies managed to come out on top with only seven team members.

Wendy Holman was the top runner and team captain. She came in second at the Divisional meet. She also ran well at the All-Southern Arizona and All-State Championships. Sue Fletcher deserved much credit for the Fillies' outcome. This was her first year as cross country coach. (Brown)

BUMP IT . . . SET IT . . .

The girls Varsity Volleyball team had an enjoyable season. The players displayed teamwork and made a real attempt to succeed. The individual academic grades of each player determines the length of her stay on the team. "Grades are just as important as playing the sport," stated Varsity Volleyball coach, Mr. Mike Tomooka. The team lost only a few members and maintained a positive athletic spirit.

In an attempt to prepare the students for the season, a local summer camp project was held. The project was designed to increase the athletic capability of the player. These innovative steps in team preparation have made Mr. Mike Tomooka optimistic about each year with the team. He enjoys teaching the sport.

Over The Net

Joyful demonstrations are a part of every sport. Argelio Palimino jumps up as she scores a point, while Terra Shepard watches. (Flores)

Audience participation is always helpful during a "hard" game. Mrs. A. Jones leans in to help Eliza Gardin get her serve over the net. (Flores)

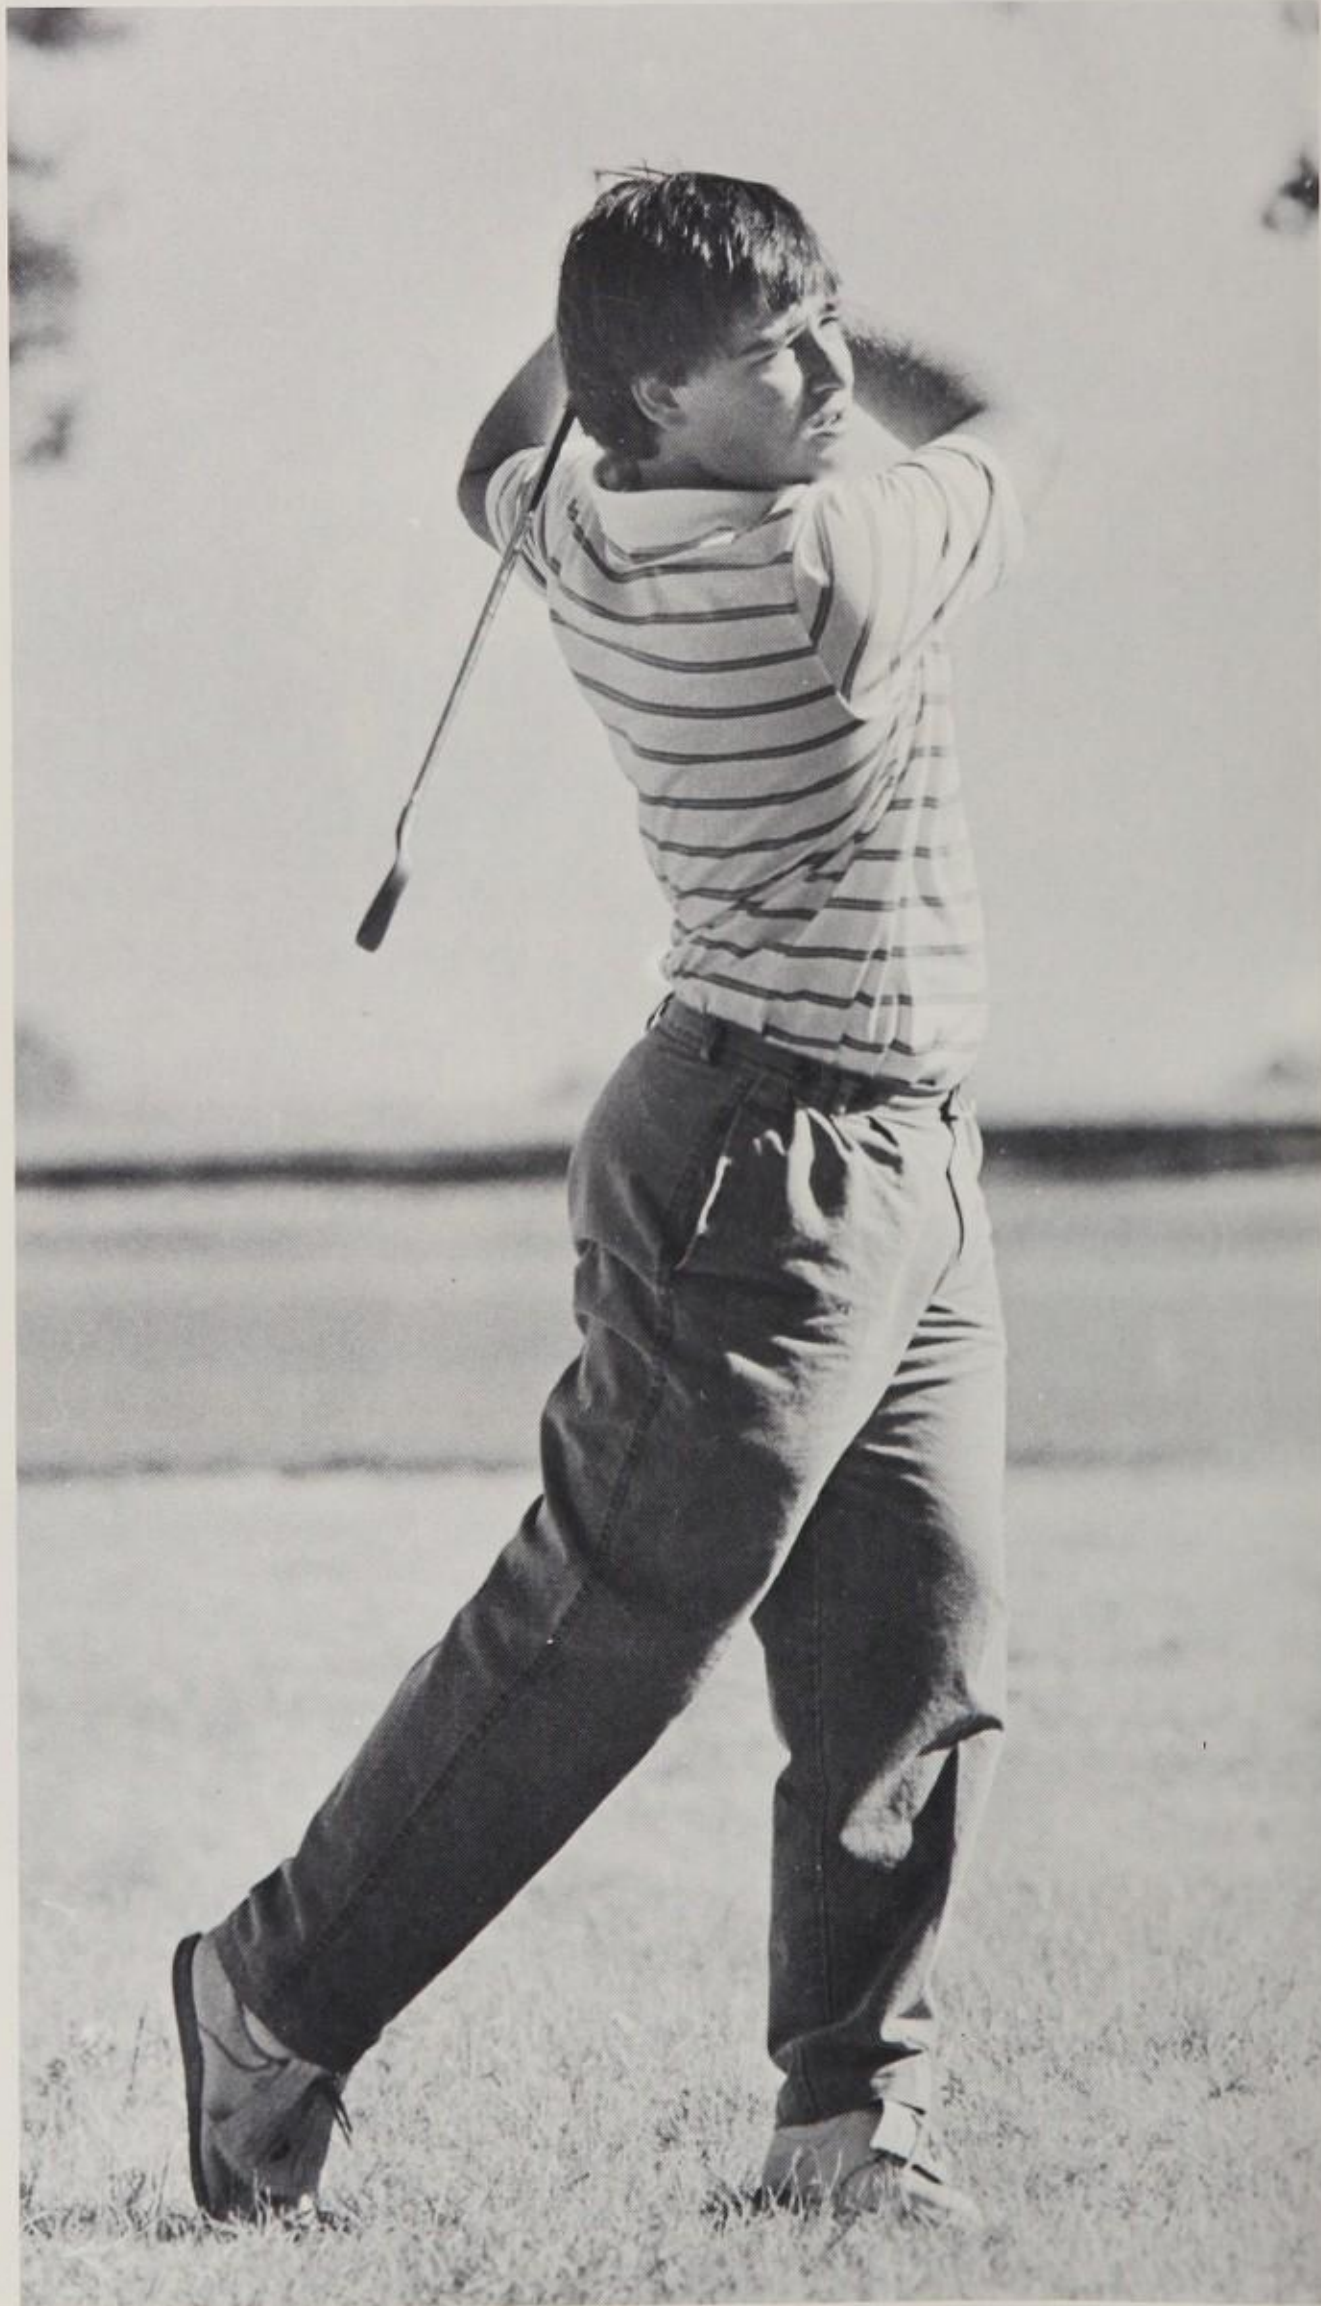

Team spirit is very prominent during pre-game preparations. Coach Laura Haas gives her JV team a couple of last minute instructions before their imminent victory. (Flores)

Watch The Birdie!!!

Sufficient practice to master the game of golf was hard work, but the fresh air and pleasant surroundings were partial recompense for the hours of labor put in by the members of the Buena High School golf team.

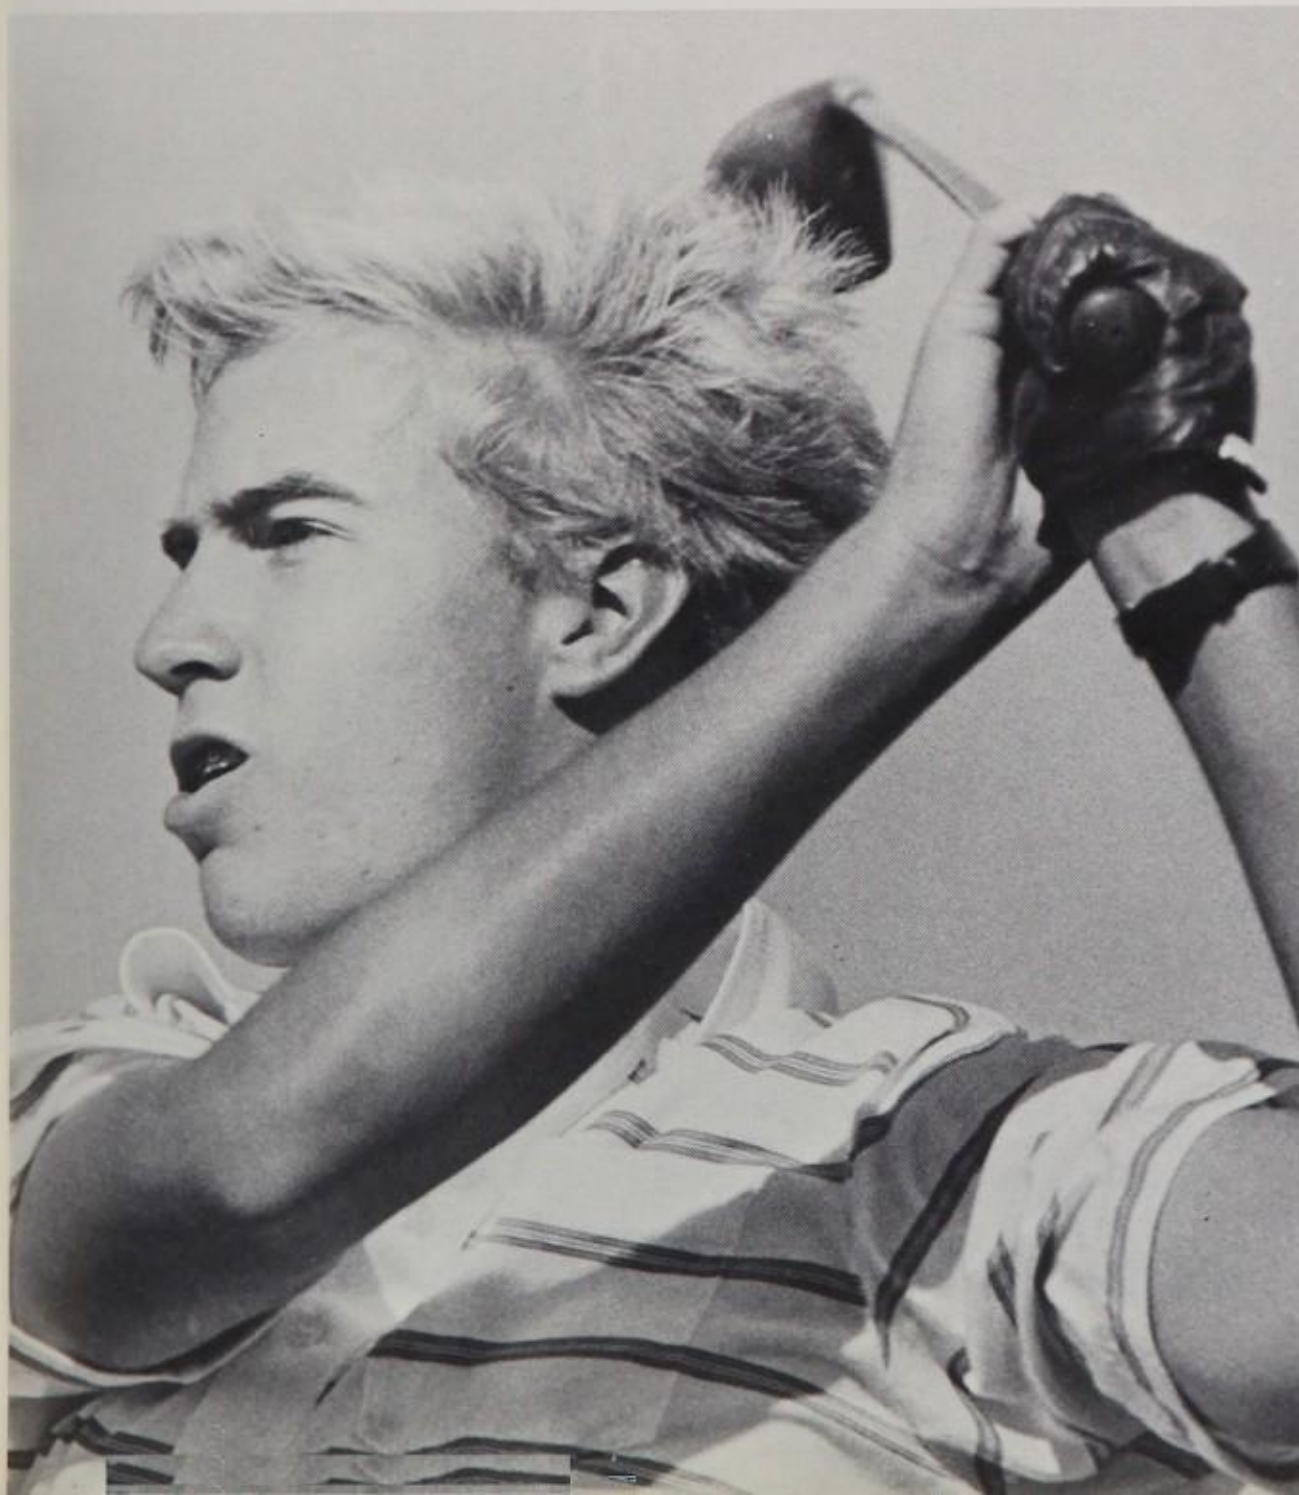

Personal dedication to become better at whacking the little white ball was evident in the effort and attitude of each member of the team. Buena can be proud of its golfers. (Griffin)

LADY ACERS!!!

Dedication, perseverance, and discipline are all very important characteristics for tennis players. The 1988 Buena High School Girls Varsity Tennis Team possessed these necessary qualities. Lead by Senior Tori Meyers, and Junior Jill Jenia the team had great potential for the coming season. Coach Francine Callahan hoped her girls would have a very good season. Her hopes for state berths went out to Meyers, Thalhiemer, and possibly Jenia.

When asked what her outlook for the season was, Thalhiemer responded, "I hope we all work together, like a team, to make this the best season ever."

Coaching is very demanding, but Coach Callahan finds time to stop and take a portrait with her manager, Andrew Miller.

Jumping The Gun!

This was a great season for the Buena Swim team. They were five and three at the end of the season. With the help of coach Penice Culiver and her assistants Susan Herrington and Beverly Cairns, six of the swimmers went on to state finals: Tom Herrington, Brian Fulford, Peter Flores, James Wilson, Chris Culiver, and Dee Sims.

Practice times were 5:30 to 6:30 A.M., and 3:30 to 5:30 P.M. daily. With all the practice, they still had some problems. The boys did not have enough members, and the girls did not have enough experience. Their respective strong points were just the opposite; the boys had the experience, and the girls had the numbers. The most difficult meet for the boys was Amphi and for the girls was Palo Verde.

In order to get on the team, members had to show that they could handle the workouts. To get a Buena letter, they had to attend at least 55 practices.

Team members were: Nicole Balzarini, April Burge, Sonya Clark, Brandi Cochran, Yvette Cottrell, Chris Culiver, Christie Durand, Peter Flores, Tom Fortner, Brian Fulford, Melissa Gaines, Sean Hancock, Amy Hatton, Tom Herrington, Kraig Hubbard, Maggie Janecki, Christie Kapranopoulos, Susan Medrano, Bobby Merritt, Debbie Mowery, Erick Newton, Phaedra Nielson, Kim Olinger, Mary Pisaneschi, Nicole Richardson, Brad Richardson, Cy Sims, Dee Sims, Gena Staples, Melissa Thorpe, Christie Townsend, James Wilson, Missy Wilson, Danyelle Williamson, Sheri Yaryan, Suzanne Zahasky. (J. B.)

After the race, Brad Richardson prepares to towel off.

Up, Up, And Away!!!

Concentration, good form, and height are three essential characteristics needed to perform a dive. The 1987-88 Buena Varsity diving team possessed all three of these essential qualities.

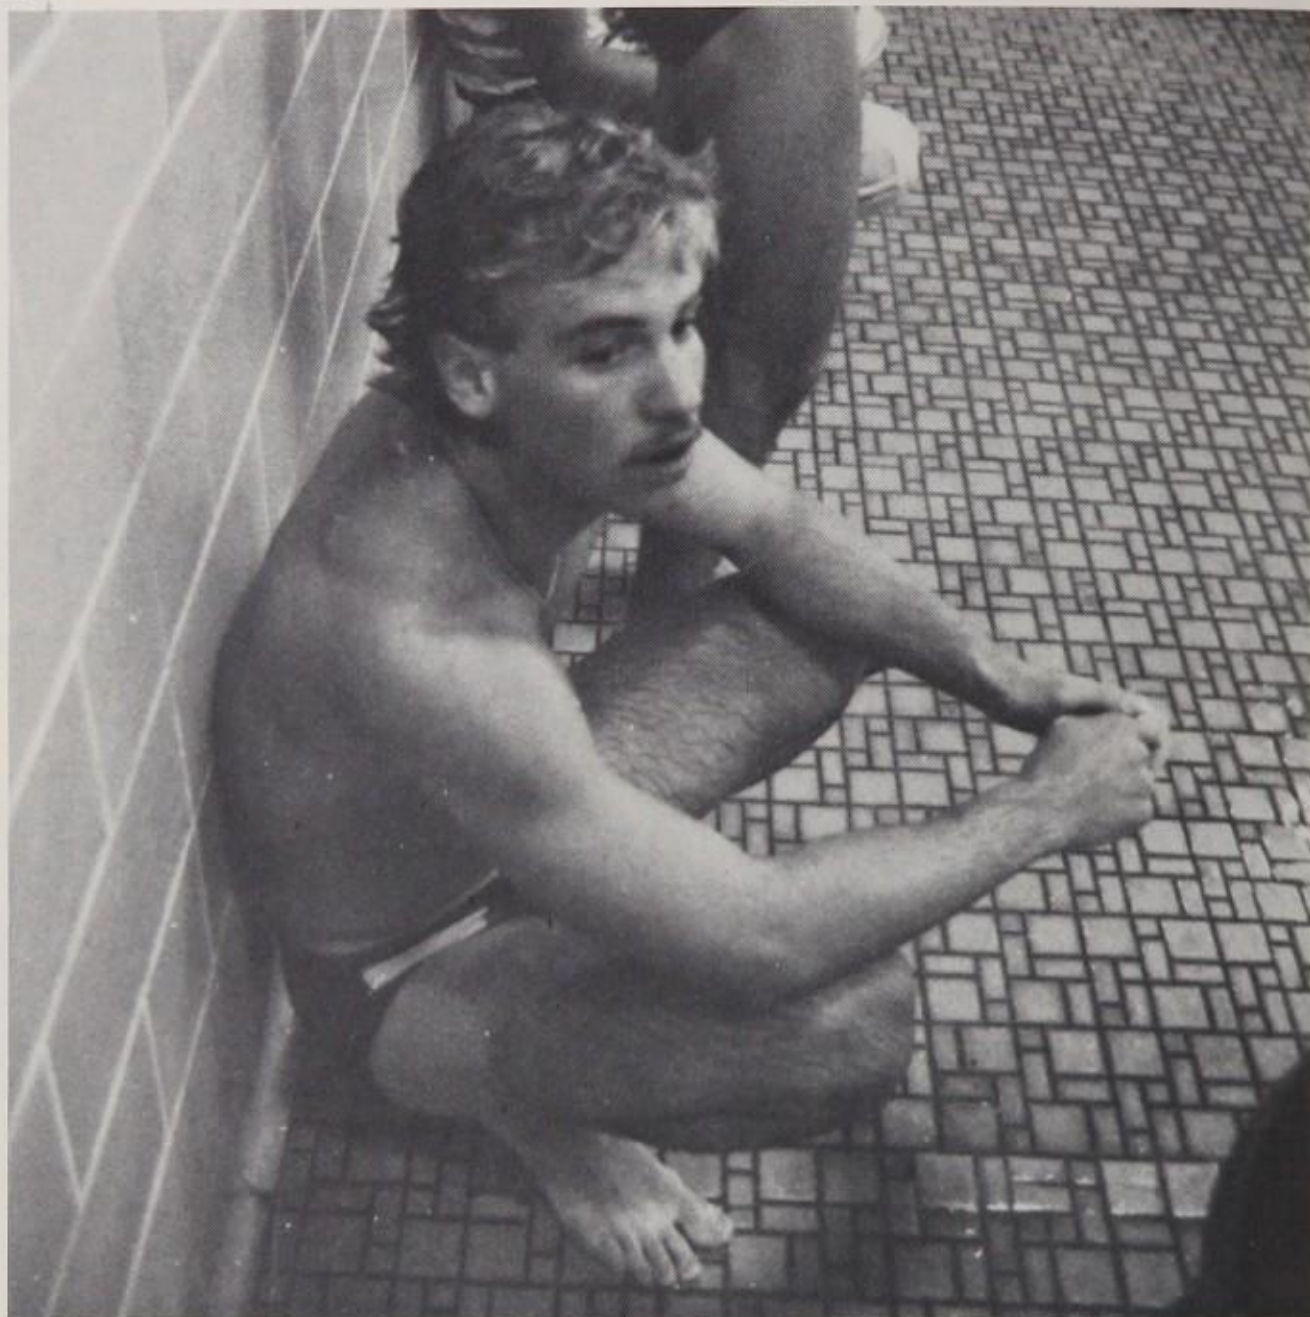

The Girls Varsity team had only three returning divers: Natalie Strohmyer, Alicia Grudzinski, and Stephanie Chambers. Among the underclassmen, there was a very large turn out. Enough new girls tried out that Coach Bill Cravat formed a Junior Varsity squad. Natalie Strohmyer, and Alicia Grudzinski were the only girls to qualify for state championships. Both girls performed exceptionally well at the event.

On the boy's side, it was a very different story. They had only one returning diver, Joey Campbell. The boy's team had a much more difficult season than the girls, but Coach Kravat was very optimistic about his young team. Joey Campbell was the only male diver to qualify for the state championships. Campbell also did very well at the event.

Take 'Em Down 1-2-3!!!

The 1988 wrestling season at Buena got off to a good start. Coach Manny Martinez stated that "the team's determination would have to be counted as their greatest strength," that was what helped them with their winning matches.

When it comes to wrestling there are no easy matches, each one takes determination, skill and a lot of quickness. To gain each one of these abilities, the wrestlers had to practice daily anywhere from 2 to 3 hours. But when it came to the day of the match, the wrestlers would not practice for what was ahead of them. Their goal was to win the division title. In order to achieve this goal, the team members had to go up against the defending state champions. Coach Martinez wanted to produce winners, and that was exactly what he did. (Persinger)

Physical fitness is reached through conditioning. Coach Manny Martinez leads his wrestlers in exercise. (Gill)

Members of the Varsity squad are: Joe Barno, Andy Buckley, Abe Con-sandine, Justin Johnson, Peter Johnson, Joe Kissinger, Greg Lodge, Christopher Luhiau, Robert Ludien, Matthew McCray, Steven McQueen, Keith Rabb, Adam Thrasher, Christopher Watson, Thomas Wingate, Thomas White, Adam Young, Coach Manny Martinez. Up, Up, And Through The Hoop!!!

Approximately 45 boys tried out for the Varsity Basketball team. Out of the 45, 10 made the team. Only three players returned from last year, they were Fred Anderson, Brian Jones, and Cedric Martin. The players were chosen on their ability to pass, their attitude, and their discipline.

Shooting and passing were considered the teams greatest strength. Their greatest weakness was quickness. The team could run fast. "They just didn't have a quick defense," stated Coach Jerry Winslow.

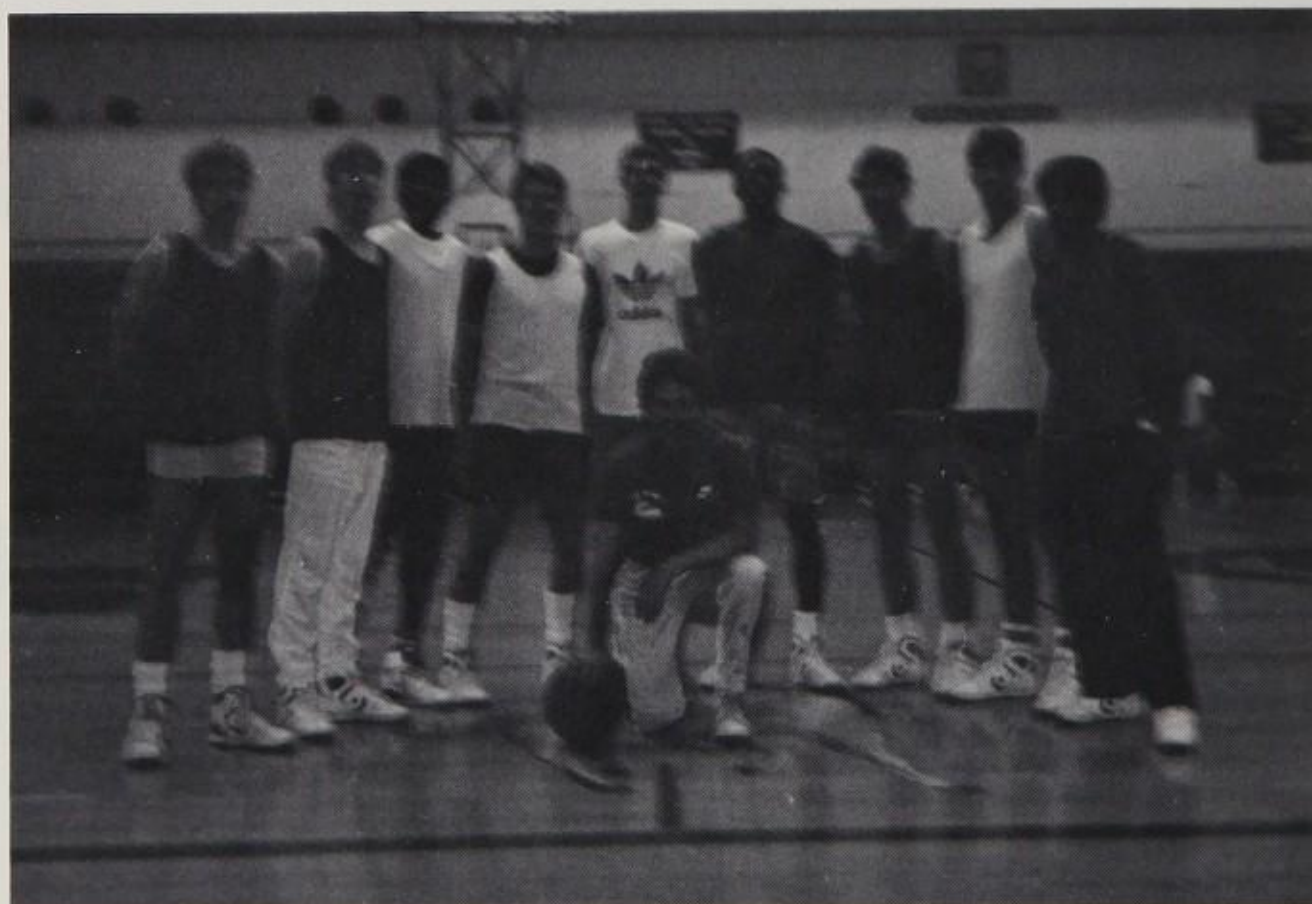

Sahuaro High School was considered Buena's toughest game, and Douglas High School was their easiest. (Persinger)

Two Points A Shot

The Junior Varsity basketball team had a great season this year. Good team spirit and real determination kept the JV squad going. When asked about basketball, Richard Mays replied, "It's a great sport, but only a hobby til football comes again."

Although 20 competitors went out for the team, only 14 players made the JV squad. Team members included; Cornell Beans, Daniel Cahill, Darren Conrad, Michael Goode, Forrest Haines, Benjamin Hoskins, Michael Leavitt, Richard Mays, Daniel Palmere, and Brad Richardson. (Kelley)

With an expression of concentration, Terry Knaus shoots a basket for two points.

Shooting For The Top

This year's Varsity Girls' Basketball team had many tough obstacles to overcome. They had long, hard practices to polish developing skills. Many of the team members were young and inexperienced. The team won some games and came within 10 points of the other teams' scores in the rest of the games.

The major reason the girls' team had such a turnaround was Mrs. Brenda Gardea, the coach. She believes in hard work and hustle. Her style of coaching has paid off, as shown by the improvements in the team of '88. (Griffin)

Their Best Shot

The Buena 1987-88 Junior varsity and Freshman Girls Basketball teams put on an impressive show this year. The games ranged from total sweeps, to games that went down to the final minutes before the outcome was determined. Backed by some unruly but devoted Colt fans, the girls managed a rally for some big wins.

Outstanding character, enthusiasm, tough practices, team unity, and the ability to take advantage of opportunities presented, attributed to the successful season. It is said that things turn out the best for those who take advantage of the way things turn out. This certainly can be said of this group of young women. Sherrie Henderson stated "I had an enjoyable time on the team, and continually learned from my experiences." (Johnson)

After a free throw, the Colt team scrambles to re-gain possession of the ball.

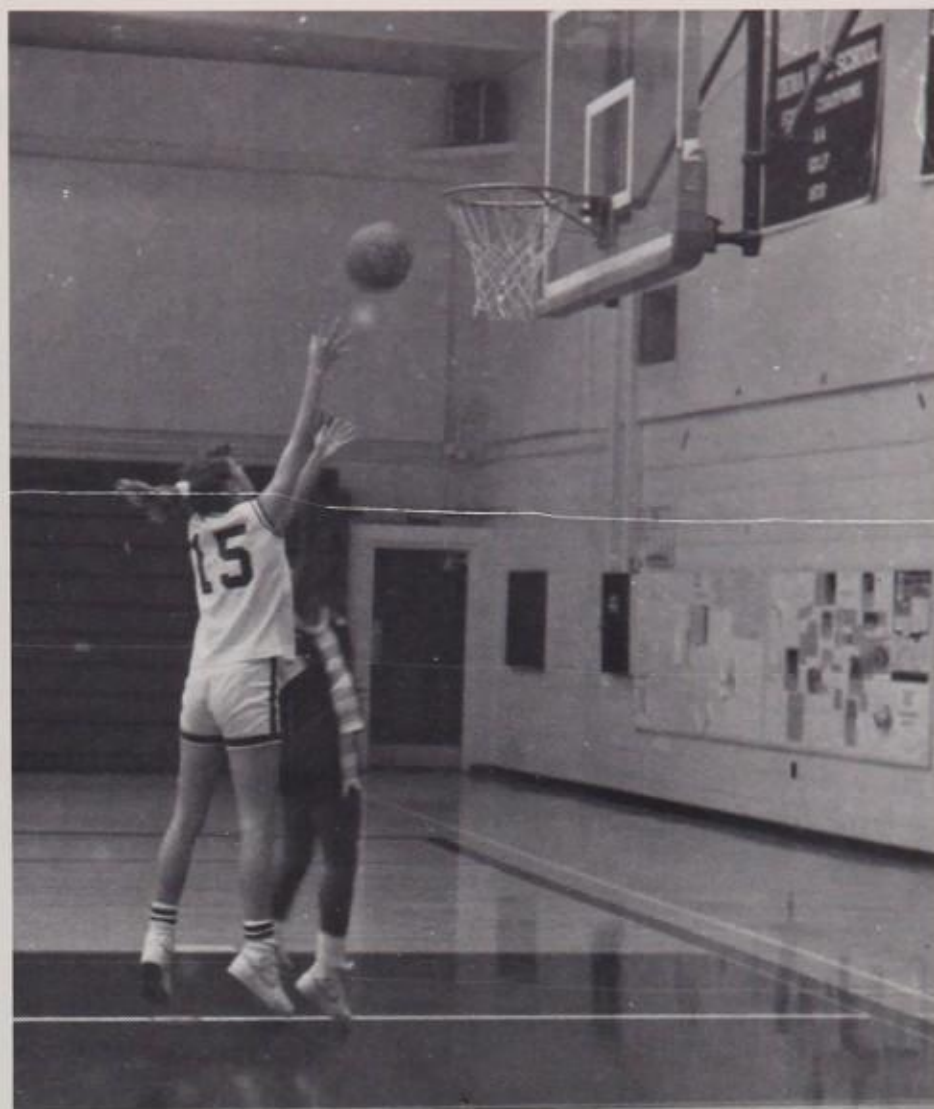

While trying to stay in front of her opponent, Diane Robb looks for a pass.

Late in the game, Diane Robb shoots for two.

As Maria Cummings goes for a layup, an opposing player intently tries to take the ball away.

In a desperate fight for the rebound, the Sabino Sabercats come up empty handed.

While the other players look on, Marla Cummings makes a foul shot.

1988 Buena Boys Colts Track!

Again this year, the Boys Track Team was a strong contender for high Southern Division and AAA State honors. Leading the Colts this year were all around performer Cedric Martin, top thrower Brad Nozicka, long jumper Dave Brown, pole vaulter, Alan Cotton (the school record holder), and outstanding distance runners John Beatty, and Lee Brinker.

Besides Martin, the sprint hurdle ranks had Keith Jones, Forest Haines, and Mark Stradling. Bruno Clark, Derek Leanard, Delton Lowerey, Matt Crandall, Brent Larson, Thoai Nguyen, and Jason Garcia ran in the distance events.

Tige Johnson and Ron Williams threw the discus and the shot put. From last year, high jumper Brad Richardson returned along with pole vaulter Ray Hoskinson.

The coaching staff consisted of head coach Dick Haines, with Paul Sadorf, Randy Forrest, Vince Lopreti, and Tom Callaway filling the assistant coach ranks.

Managers this year were Mike Luhiau, Chris Luhiau, and Mark Blaschak. (Bustamante)

Getting In Shape!

The successful Girls Track team had many hard warm-ups and long practices. The work paid off during the tough competition against their strongest rival Amphi. Batter Up!

The Boys Baseball team of 88 showed a lot of potential. Many long hours of practice and lots of exercise paid off for these young athletes.

When asked for his outlook on the season, Steve Boggie commented, "I have a good hope for Buena making it to state. We're going all the way!"

On the practice mound, Darin Elkins throws the ball to the outfielder. (Flores)

ALL OF THEIR BEST

This year's Varsity and Junior Varsity softball teams had many talented players, and three first rate coaches. The Varsity coach was Kaye Dean, who was assisted by Becky Babuca. The J.V. coach was Jan Luxton.

A combination of team dedication, motivation, execution, and 110% effort during practices and games, made the Buena softball teams very tough opponents. Kaye Dean was really excited about the way this years' teams performed. She was also excited about the 1987-88 schedule, saying that it was the best ever. The girls showed a great deal of pride and determination throughout the season. (Johnson)

After executing a near perfect bunt, Windy White makes the run to first base. (Johnson)

Since she has suffered from an injury, Missy Babuca practices extra hard to be sure her pitching is up to standards. (Johnson)

Practice makes perfect. Mara Goodrick approaches home plate while practicing her base running technique. (Johnson)

Before beginning practice, the Varsity team takes time to warm up in order to avoid injury. (Johnson)

As the ball approaches, Amy Mabijs prepares to field it during one of the early practices of the season. (Johnson)

Cross The Home Plate

Assistant coach, Becky Babuca, reminds Melody Nair to touch home plate while practicing base running. (Johnson)

While waiting for her partner to throw the ball, Marsha Tank pauses to smile for the camera. (Johnson)

While warming up, Phaedra Nielson stands patiently anticipating the throw from her partner. (Johnson)

Will she catch it? Allison York removes all doubt. (Johnson)

After having finished running the bases, Vicky Parker looks exasperated. (Johnson)
